There are so many remedies recommended for the cure of every human ill that the purchaser often hesitates in making a selection. When called upon for advice in such cases, we usually recommend.

Our Own Preparations

We do this because we know just what they contain. All of our remedies are prepared from proved formulas. The ingredients used are fresh, pure and potent. Compounding is done in our own splendidly equipped laboratory under the supervision of an experienced pharmacist.

We also have an excellent line of Toilet Preparations which are put up under own name.
