Observations

Trouble is the background against which friendship shines the brightest.

The difficulty about platonic love is that after awhile it wants to become something else.

The fool always thinks it is the other fellow who is foolish. After a woman has worn a gown twice she imagines everybody in the world has seen it.

Mrs. Mollie Buck returned to her home from Grants Pass last night on No. 18, where she has been visiting her daughter.

NORTH POWDER NEWS NOTES.

North Powder, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—The threshing outfits are now busy on the grain in the irrigated sections. The grain is reported as running from 35 to 50 bushels per acre. The quality is poor so that the grain will not grade very high. Some of the threshing crews will not continue to run longer as they say that the grain is so tough that they cannot make wages at it so it does not pay them.

The marriage of Miss Naomi Spangle and Mr. Brace is reported to have taken place recently. Miss Spangle has lived in North Powder for a period of years and is well known here having conducted a restaurant in North Powder for a time. Mr. Brace is a well known rancher, having lived in the Clover Creek neighborhood for a long time. Their friends wish them every happiness in their married life.

Mrs. Grout is enjoying a visit from a sister for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. John Burdette who live in the Riverside section are visiting friends and relatives at the Cove. They will bring back a load of fruit with them when they return. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hooper are taking care of their place while they are away.

Miss Dora Mann daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Mann is now working on the O.-W. railroad as a telegrapher. She is at present stationed at the Dalles. Miss Mann is an old hand at the telegraph work.

The soldier boys stationed in this vicinity gave a ball at North Powder on Friday evening. The supper was served by the boys in true army style and if the comments are true reflect great credit in the cooks and waiters. A large crowd was present and all pronounced it a good time in every respect.

Mrs. Jimmy Wickes was a town visitor on Saturday. Mrs. Wickes' health which has been very poor is improving and she is able to go out more than she did.

Mr. and Mrs. McPherson are planning to return to their homestead in a few days. Mr. McPherson has been working down in the valley during the harvest and threshing and will go to their own home and put in their fall wheat.

It is reported that the Mooneys, who have been running the Mooney restaurant, will soon take possession of the Oregon rooming house as Mr. Cool who has been running it plans to go to Idaho to live. Mrs. Mooney will employ a girl to help her run the restaurant and expects to run both places in connection with each other.
