VIVIAN MARTIN AT ARCADE TOMORROW

Dainty Vivian Martin, the winsome Pallas-Paramount star who will be seen at the Arcade on Friday and Saturday in a picturization of Paul West's clever story "A Kiss for Susie." Although seen as a bricklayer's daughter in the first part of the story, she is given opportunity to wear many of the beautiful gowns and frocks for which she is noted. Miss Martin, since she has been informed that thousands of young girls throughout the country are looking to her as an authority on maidenly fashions, is constantly on the alert for the latest creations and even went so far as to have the description of one of the gowns she wears in "A Kiss for Susie," telegraphed from New York.

"FOR MEN ONLY" SHOW IN "SAWDUST RING"

Bessie Love Fools Villager With A Hula-Hula Booth.

In the new Triangle play, "The Sawdust Ring," Bessie Love plays the part of a little girl who runs away with her playmate to join a circus. They take with them Dobbin, an old white horse, and give parades through towns which they pass on their journey. In one town they won such popularity that they determined to enlarge their troupe, so one of Bessie's castoff dolls was dressed up in shredded wheat to represent a Hula-Hula dancer.

Harold Goodwin, as Peter, Bessie's little playmate, conceived a plan to amass a large fortune. A sugar barrel was secured and these words printed on it: "For men only. Price 1 cent." It was not long before news of this spread like wildfire, and all the villagers from far and near came to see the mystery. After paying the required price they were permitted to look into the barrel, where they beheld Bessie's Hula doll gazing up at them with a strange fire in her eyes.

This delightful picture will be shown at the Star Theatre today and tomorrow.

Worth Their Weight in Gold.

No man can do his best when suffering from backache, rheumatic pains, swollen joints, sore muscles or other symptoms of kidney trouble. B. H. Stone, 840 N. 2nd St., Reading, Pa., writes: "I contracted a most severe case of kidney trouble. I gradually grew worse and for months was unable to attend to business. I began to use Foley Kidney Pills and soon found the pains were gone and I have had no aches since. They have been worth their weight in gold to me."

Report Of Red Cross Committee

Dr. M. K. Hall, chairman, La Grande Chapter Red Cross, today gave the following statement to the Observer:

"La Grande Chapter American Red Cross Monday shipped one box of knitted supplies for the army to headquarters in Seattle, containing the following articles:

- "Fifty-one sets, each containing one sweater, one pair socks, one pair wristlets, one scarf.
- "Twenty-four scarfs.
- "Fourty-six pairs wristlets.
- "Fourty-eight pairs socks.
- "Two pairs bed sox.
- "Seven helmets.

"These articles were made by the ladies of La Grande, Joseph, Enterprise, Lostine, Wallowa, Elgin, Union, Cove, Ladd Canyon, Imbler, Summerville, Hot Lake, many of whom are members of the Red Cross, and many of whom are not.

"This shipment is in addition to ten boxes of surgical dressing and hospital supplies which were shipped about two weeks ago.

The officers of the chapter are grateful for the work done by the ladies throughout the two counties, which probably has enabled these two counties to send the first shipment of knitted articles to reach headquarters in Seattle. The spirit exhibited by these ladies, the majority of whom have no relatives at the front, is, we believe, not excelled by that of any people anywhere.

"The greatest difficulty that those directing the work have met with is that of obtaining material, especially yarn, the present supply of the latter being almost exhausted. They have received very valuable aid from some of the merchants of the several towns throughout the two counties, who especially in one instance, have gone far to obtain yarn.

"It has been a matter of regret to those in charge of the work that the rules of the American Red Cross absolutely prohibits them from selling any of the supplies in their possession, and especially yarn, to individuals desiring to make articles for relatives at the front, or to anyone whatever.

"Such action is considered unfair to the merchants as they supply material to the Red Cross at wholesale prices. Red Cross money cannot be used for any speculative purpose and therefore we are not allowed to buy or sell.

"The shortage of yarn has been, and is such, that although headquarters at Seattle intended to buy large quantities of this material and distribute it to the different chapters, branches and auxiliaries, so far they have been unable to obtain any. La Grande chapter has been therefore fortunate in obtaining as much yarn as they have.

"Those who have assumed responsibility for the work here, wish through you to express their deep sense of gratitude to all the ladies of these two counties who have so nobly entered into this work, under the supervision of the chapter and the several auxiliaries, and to express the hope and the belief that they will continue until they have completed the allotment of 250 sets, or more, of knitted wear destined for use by the soldiers in the extreme need that will arise for them in the trenches at the front, where they are surely destined to suffer, and some of them even to make the supreme sacrifice for us."

Prompt Action Averts Trouble.
Sluggish bowels indirectly cause much sickness. A constipated condition not only poisons the blood stream, but quickly affects the liver and other organs, causing biliousness, sick headache, sour stomach, bloating, etc. Foley Cathartic Tablets are mild in action, yet cleanse thoroughly, with no nausea and no costive after effects. They keep the bowels regular, stomach sweet and liver active. Stout persons welcome the comfortable, light, free feeling they bring.

GEO. M. COHAN IN "SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE"

Great Mystery Farce!
Wild freaks of action! Weird tangling of circumstances! Sudden and dynamic charges of humor! These elements, and considerable more make George M. Cohan's new Artercraft picture, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," the most novel film of the year. When it was produced on the stage by George M. it defied the critics and won their most favorable reviews. It bewildered the audience and left them proclaiming it the most remarkable farce ever staged. It was heralded as the greatest novelty of the theatre and readily accepted as such wherever it appeared. On the screen of the Arcade theatre, beginning next Monday this famous theatrical hit will disclose not only the unusual mystery, humor and thrills displayed by the original play but also the inimitable George M. Cohan himself, plus the wide scope of the cinema which was denied its stage presentation.

The Observer subscribers will please not pay carrier boys money or give them stops or starts. Please pay either at the office or The Observer collector. All subscriptions and stops should be phoned to The Observer, Main 37.

Potted Tragedies.
A burly butcher met a winsome widow. He was sorry ever afterward. A grocer once saw his errand boy running. The old gentleman had a stroke.
John Henry introduced his sweetheart to his brother Willie. She is now John Henry's sister-in-law.
As his wife's mother was departing after a six months' sojourn Juggins asked her sarcastically to stop a little longer. She stayed another six months.
A man questioned the veracity of a pugilist. The man's wife did not recognize him on his arrival home.
A clergyman once saw nothing but gold and silver in the collection box. The shock awakened him.—London Mail.

A Real Providence.
Mr. Younghusband reached home late for dinner.
"I got pinched for speeding on the way home," he explained rather sheepishly. "Have to appear tomorrow morning and get $10 or fifteen days."
Mrs. Younghusband fervently clasped two blistered little hands. "What a providence!" she cried devoutly. "You must take the fifteen days, John! The cook has just left!"—Harper's Magazine.

Consoling Him.
"Just because that guy has a little coin he looks down on me. If I had money I'd fix him."
"The desire for wealth is often connected with some scheme for reprisal, old top. Perhaps that is why the wealth is not forthcoming."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

The Abuse of Purgatives.
It may sound absurd, but the true reason why so many people constantly have recourse to purgatives to keep in condition is that purgative drugs are so easy to obtain. In other words, very often the person who prescribes a purgative for himself instead of lessening his tendency to constipation, is only confirming his digestive tract in its habits of sluggishness. The intestine is just like a human being in that if it can get its work done for itself it will become slack and lazy. If used to receiving the stimulus of a powerful purgative drug several times a week or even nightly it readily gets into such a condition that it is unable to carry out its work properly without this stimulus.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured
by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surface of the system.
We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. The Catarrh Cure, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
