Letters From The Front

The following letter was received by Mr. and Mrs. Cross from Ralph Poston who is with the Hospital Corps at Long Island:

October 1, 1917. Mr. and Mrs. Cross, Dear Friends: I received your more than welcome letter yesterday morning. It was a great joy to hear from you, for I always enjoy your letters so much.

If you read my letter to Mr. Landrum you, do doubt, know about our trip across the United States and my first trip to New York City. Since then, in fact a week ago Saturday, I made another trip to the city. We went to Hempstead, a small town near here and took a car for Brooklyn. It so happened that the car took in almost all sea coast towns on the island before landing in Brooklyn. We rode and rode and rode, finally reaching Brooklyn. Then we took an elevated to Brooklyn bridge station. Then took a surface car up Broadway and rode about a hundred blocks. The great joke of it all was that we rode for over two hours for fifteen cents apiece. Two of us were together. You will wonder what our idea was, well, the idea of the whole ride was to reach Central Park. We finally reached it. It is an elegant park, very large, right in the heart of one of the most densely populated islands in the world, for New York "proper" is located on Manhattan Island. Central Park is all that we could take in in the time we had, so then we went to an 8th Street Y. M. C. A. There we found hot showers, a plunge and a really home cooked supper. All were greatly relished, but the latter mostly.

When one goes to New York on the street car, he goes over East River, but when he goes on a Long Island train, he goes under. One can easily tell when going under the river for the air is so dense that it hurts one's ears. If one has lots of time when in New York and doesn't care to see the city, ride on a surface car. If not very much time ride on the subway, but if he doesn't have much time and also wishes to see the city, take the elevated. I usually take a subway, for I am usually in a hurry to get to a certain spot. Also, subway depots are thicker than elevated, or at least seem to be.

There are some wonderful buildings in New York. I suppose you have heard of the Woolworth building. It is a beautiful white structure, prettier than a picture could ever make it. I expect to go to New York once more before we leave the U. S. A. I want to go Saturday. I spent about five minutes today writing down things I wanted to see.

I have been watching the papers for announcements of concerts given by great artists, for I want to hear one great artist if possible. A Red Cross benefit is to be given soon on this island. Great singers will sing, but—$10 per seat. I wouldn't mind five dollars—even if I had to sit in "nigger's Heaven."

Mrs. Cross, when you feel so disposed, I wish you would write me some standards you think a U. S. soldier should live up to. As yet, I have not had the opportunity of seeing J. P. Morgan's summer home, nor Willard Straight's. Westbury is just a short way from here. In fact we are most surrounded by towns except on the East.

Every once in a while, my appetite gets sharpened, like it did when you wrote about making plum jelly, for mother writes and tells me about making preserves and good things like that. Then she asks if I can smell them. Oh, it's a great temptation! Yes, Ernest Vehrs came over to camp a short time ago. It seemed good to see someone from your home town. Yesterday, Mr. Meyers was here, but I didn't know him as well as I did Ernest.

We expect to leave soon for somewhere, presumably France. We thought a week ago that we would be gone by this time, but one of the Lieutenants said today that we would not leave before the end of this week, so that means the middle of next week.

Our address, after we leave here will be, 3rd Field Hospital, 117 Sanitary Train, 42 Division, American Expeditionary Forces.

I must close for this time. Hoping to hear from you again soon, I remain, Your friend, RALPH POSTON. Third Field Hospital, 117 Sanitary Train, Camp Mills, Hempstead, L. I., New York.

North Powder News

North Powder, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Mr. Warde of Telocaset has been very sick but is reported as much better and expected to be out again soon. Dr. Law made a professional trip to Cove on Thursday and again on Sunday.

Mrs. Blevins and her two sons have gone to Huntington, where Mr. Blevins has a position. They will make their future home at that place.

L. S. Cool and family left Saturday morning for Idaho, where they will make their future home. Mrs. Mooney purchased the Oregon rooming house from them and will run it in connection with her restaurant. Mr. McGregor has a fine horse very sick with blood poisoning. The animal scratched itself on its forehead with a nail and got the place infected. He sent for Dr. Paddock to take care of it. Miss Anna Taylor will file her final proof on her homestead on October 15. She is planning to go to a warmer climate this winter for her health. She will leave as soon as she can get away. Mrs. Gardener is visiting with her daughter Mrs. Walter McGrath.

Oscar Jacobson is suffering with a bad boil on his hand. He thinks that having a boil on his hand and hauling in what is no fun.

Floyd Wiltshire has sold his bunch of beef cattle and will ship them immediately. He thinks that he was lucky to get rid of them when feed is so high.

Walt Jones is busy hauling in his grain. He has had a good crop on his farm this year. He also had a fine yield from his hay crop.
