SUMMERVILLE NOTES

Summerville, Ore., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Some of our longtime residents—the J. A. Murchison family—are going to leave us and will locate in the Cove. They have sold their farm of a short 160 acres to Hugh and Wayne Park of this place. Consideration a little less than $20,000. They closed a deal last week for the Bush ranch at the Cove. We are sorry to see them go.

Mrs. J. A. Murchison has resigned her position as president in the Ladies Aid as a result of having to leave this locality in the near future. Cove, you will make no mistake in getting Mrs. Murchison into your Ladies Aid circle. Her selection proved in what high esteem we hold her here.

Miss Lois Smith, of Pasadena, Calif., and Mrs. Esther Cupinali of Seattle, again for raising funds for the Louise Home in Portland, Ore., were here last Friday evening to present the situation. Many facts were disclosed which are not widely enough known. Much good is being done for the victims of vice at these Homes by those in charge and the ones raising funds. As a rule, people respond very generously to help.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tameris, an 8-pound daughter, on the 11th inst. Mother and Olive Fern are doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Zweifel were over from Elgin on Sunday to get their little daughter, Mary, who was visiting with her grandmother and aunt.

Frank Ott harvested in the neighborhood of 500 sacks of potatoes last week, giving "back-breaking" employment (so some complained) to quite a number of people.

Cecil Anderson and Burr Cantrell will give a dance in the Masonic Hall next Friday evening—the first of the season.

Miss Mabel Hug and Miss Hazel West, in company with Ray West, spent the week-end with relatives and friends in La Grande.

Miss Rose Zweifel spent a day in Elgin with relatives and friends, returning with her brothers, R. D. and Dave.

The teachers are back from the Institute and report a most splendid time and an unusually large attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. John Niederer of Dry Creek spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Miss Lydia M. Hug.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodell spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wagoner.

Mrs. A. C. Glenn is visiting with her sister Mrs. Clark in Wallowa County.

Miss Louise Sion spent the week-end with Miss Lydia M. Hug. Among the number who will pick apples at Imbler from here are Mr. and Mrs. Maud McRae.

Mrs. Paul Becker returned to her home in Telocaset a short time ago. There will be preaching here next Sunday evening by Rev. G. R. Archer. The subject will be "The Golden Age."

WALLOWA NEWS NOTES

Wallowa, Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The family of Burroughs and friends were in Wallowa Sunday visiting Mrs. A. E. Tulley. They are from Enterprise.

Mrs. C. A. Hunter and her son and daughter arrived in Wallowa, Sunday from Pendleton and La Grande, where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

McDonald Lockwood and his sister Dorothy, returned to Enterprise, Sunday, they have been visiting here during vacation.

The Means-Anderson Company of musical entertainers arrived and departed here Saturday and Sunday respectively. The show was very good.

Mr. B. Allen and wife who was Miss Bessie Swan of Burns, Ore., who were married in Burns several days ago, went through to Lostine Thursday. They will return to Wallowa at most any time as their house is being fixed up.

ALICEL NEWS NOTES

Alicel, Ore., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—The Women's Home Missionary Society met with Mrs. William Webster Thursday afternoon.

The Epworth League held a business and social meeting at the Parsonage Friday evening. Miss Margaret Taylor was elected president and Miss Ina Watkins treasurer in the stead of Mary Taylor and Bertha Speckhart.

The Farmers' Union held a dinner, program and business meeting at Alicel Saturday.

Rally Day was well attended Sunday. A special program was prepared.

Epworth League was led by Mrs. L. S. Smith and followed by a lecture on the Louise Home and Alberta Kerr Nursery by Miss Lois Smith. The lecture was illustrated by lantern slides.

Jesse Smith of Palmer Junction and Lillian Smith of La Grande visited at the home of Giles Van Housen Sunday.

Miss Lena Smith spent a part of last week with relatives and friends in Alicel.

Junior League was held at the Parsonage Saturday afternoon and well attended by all the little folks.

MT. GLEN NOTES

Mt. Glenn, Ore., Oct. 15.—(Special.)—Peter Allen has sold his 240-acre farm near the Iowa School to Robert Smith of the Grande Ronde Meat Company. Consideration is said to be $26,400.00. There is a large new barn and new house on this farm, and it is considered one of the best in the neighborhood.

Mrs. E. L. Whiting is spending a month in Utah with her relatives and friends.

Threshing is completed in this vicinity. The yield is far better than Oats are especially surprising the farmers in the yield per acre.

A great amount of wood is being hauled into La Grande. Dunn Brothers, who recently purchased the Simpson Mitchell place, are using a large motor truck and deliver from two to four loads of wood daily.

Mrs. E. D. Whiting and children are visiting Mrs. Whiting's mother in Logan, Utah.

Red Cross work is receiving much attention by the ladies of the Relief Society and the children of the Primary Association are also busy with the preparation of various articles for the soldier boys. Each family is requested to give the price of one bushel of wheat to be used as a reserve fund.

A movement is on foot to organize a Home Guard Company in this neighborhood. The suggestion of organizing these units in the smaller towns and school districts is favorably received by the local officers in charge of Home Guard work.

HOUSEHOLD CARES.

Tax the Women of La Grande the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties With a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back.

And she seldom would if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands.

Have been used in kidney trouble over 50 years. Read what this La Grande woman says:

Mrs. M. E. Nibler, 2106 Third St., says: "I was pretty well crippled up with pain in my back and right side. I found it difficult to do my household work and was suffering a good deal of misery. Two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills removed the aches and pains and of late, I have had no kidney trouble." (Statement given May 20, 1910.)

On May 25, 1916, Mrs. Nibler said: "It has been several years since I have had to use a kidney remedy which is proof of how good Doan's Kidney Pills are."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Nibler had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

The Home Spent Dollar.

The "Home Spent" dollar pays the doctor when our boy is first brought into the world. That same dollar pays for his education, his High school teachers, the fireman who saves his house, and the policeman who saves that house from being burglarized. Yes, and the undertaker who buries him. Watch for our "Community Page."
