ELGIN NEWS NOTES

Elgin, Ore., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. D. Thorson, a former resident of Elgin, is visiting friends here this week. Mrs. Thorson has been employed in Portland the last winter and summer, but has accepted a position in Joseph where she will be employed this year.

Benjamin Rush, a well known young man of Elgin and a graduate of the '17 class of O. A. C., left Sunday evening after visiting a few days here with friends and relatives. Mr. Rush is working for the government in the forestry reserves near Payette, Idaho, at the present time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Crum made a business trip to La Grande last Thursday. They returned Friday morning. Dr. and Mrs. Whiting, of La Grande, were visitors of Elgin last Thursday. Superintendent A. E. Clawson returned Friday evening from the Teachers' Institute held at Baker. The trip was made in their Ford.

Reverend L. F. Smith arrived at Elgin Saturday to take up his work as pastor in the M. E. church. Reverend Smith is a man of much experience and the church expects a good year under his influence.

Mr. R. Geckler, a prominent farmer of the Flat, represented Elgin by the excellent products of his and neighboring farms at the Grange Fair, held near La Grande last week. The displays, which consisted of fresh strawberries and various other fruits and different vegetables, created no little interest and placed Elgin in good comparison with the other towns represented in the exhibit.

Last Saturday the fish car, which carried many cans of Rainbow trout, passed through Elgin on its way to Enterprise. About 75 cans of fish were unloaded at Elgin and waiting automobiles carried the fish to various streams where they were distributed. The shipment to Elgin was brought about by the Rod and Gun Club of this city.

Mrs. Sadie McNaughton left for Joseph last Thursday to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Clyde DeBoise. Jesse Crum and S. A. Chappell attended the K. of P. Lodge held in Portland last week. Mr. W. A. Hackett who was also a delegate, from the local lodge, visited relatives in Corvallis after the Grand Lodge Session. He states the new buildings being erected at the College are increasing and beautifying the institution wonderfully.

Paul Bathe, a new member of the local band, took seriously ill last week and went immediately to the Portland Hospital where he expected to undergo a surgical operation. Mrs. Martha Russell and Mrs. Mary Smith left Wednesday for Portland to be with their mother, Mrs. Wm. Morelock, who is very ill at the Good Samaritan Hospital.

O. W. Thompson and family left last week for Hermiston, where they will reside for some time. Miss Jean Patten, a former student in the Elgin schools, and Miss Belva Hamilton returned to their home in Joseph Monday after a visit with relatives in Elgin. O. R. Barnes, who has been in training at Red Rock, N. J., is home on a visit this week. He reports that Eli Tracy, a member of the same company, is getting along nicely and enjoys the army life.

JOSEPH NEWS NOTES

Joseph, Ore., Oct. 17.—(Special.)—Al W. Jones of Salem was a Joseph visitor for a few days last week. Mr. Jones was formerly from Joseph and while here attended to his farming interests in this vicinity. Misses Rose Parent and Bess Wright left Monday the 16th, for Portland. After a short sojourn there the young ladies expect to continue their journey to Fox, Alaska.

The new garage which is nearing completion on Main street looks better every day with its red brick front, white trimmings and sign. It certainly is a big addition to the town. The Joseph school closed last Tuesday noon for a few days of vacation while the teachers attended "Teachers' Institute" at Baker. According to the verbal account of the institute which was given in the Monday Morning assembly a good time was enjoyed by all the Joseph teachers. Next year the institute will be held at Enterprise. Miss Lexie Strachan, superintendent of the Joseph schools was elected chairman of the next year's institute.

H. T. (Tom) Green of North Powder is in Joseph visiting his brother and sister who live here. Miss Ruth Wilkins was hostess at a girls dancing party in the Jennings Hotel the middle of last week. Some of the girls donned boys wearing apparel which made the party quite novel. Delightful refreshments were served and all report a fine time.

The Red Cross Ball which was given in Roup's Hall last Friday evening netted the Red Cross ladies about $50. Refreshments were sold by the younger Red Cross ladies which added to the proceeds quite materially. Baker Miss Alta Spalding decided to make a hurried business trip to Pendleton, where she has farming interests. Soon after she left a telegram was received by Miss Strachan to the effect that Miss Spalding had fallen ill and had been taken to the Pendleton Hospital, in which institution her brother is a surgeon. It is reported that it will be several days before Miss Spalding will be permitted to leave the Hospital and in the mean time Miss Grace Walker, a former teacher in Joseph, will be employed to teach her room.

Floyd H. Wilkins, manager of the Jennings Hotel, left Saturday morning with a car of stock belonging to C. C. Gorsling. Grover Swaggart and family left Monday morning for Imnaha, where Mr. Swaggart will be employed to build a flume for irrigation purposes there.

Miss Thelma Miller left the last of the week for La Grande, where she will attend a Catholic school. As yet Nate Tryon has failed to do any thing except to tear things up on the strip of ground which should have a cement walk upon it. This is the only sidewalk which has not been finished and as the sidewalk leads up to school the school children are thinking of petitioning Mr. Tryon to install the walk right away.

After attending the institute at Jennie Shepherd of the Commercial Department of the Joseph High school made a side trip to Weiser where she visited with her sister. While there she saw several Joseph people among whom were the Howell family, Miss Jessie Butterfield, a former teacher in Joseph, Percy Runstadley, Harry Coleman and several others. Miss Clara Leslie was a visitor at her sister's home in La Grande last week.
