ALL-WOOL—100 PER CENT AND NO COMPROMISE

A WORD TO THE BUSINESS MAN

IF your preference is for style which shows a reasonable restraint—for fabrics of pure, lustrous wool, untainted with cotton—for the easiness of fit and the wearing qualities which only thorough tailoring can put into a garment . . . come in and try on the Fifth Avenue, the Wall Street or the American, three models for business men, designed and tailored at the Sign of the Cherry Tree . . . $20, $25 and $30

HILL'S DEPARTMENT STORE

SEENA OWEN

As O. HENRY'S delightful heroine

She lost her admiring sheep when she married the black one of the flock—an old widower who posed to be rich. He died and she became a rancher; and then she rounded up one of the lost sheep—her Teddy!

It's human. It's gripping. It's filled with humor and thrill and romance. It's real life—American life—as only O. HENRY knew it.

ARCADE

SMILING "DOUG" AT ARCADE

Commenting today the Arcade theatre will present America's most popular male star of the screen, "Doug" Fairbanks in the Artcraft picture, produced by his own company, "In Again—Out Again."

A typical Fairbanks picture, "In Again—Out Again" presents the smiling "Doug" at his best in a subject of rapid-fire themes and hundreds of hearty laughs. Never before has the athletic one had a better opportunity to give his admirers so much of his imitable self and various surprises are in store for his many friends who will visit the Arcade Theatre. Supported by Arline Preddy, the popular screen actress and an equally efficient cast including Arnold Lucy, Helen Greene, Homer Hunt, Walter Walker, Albert Parker, "Bull Montana and others of similar popularity "Doug" is given capable assistance in the presentation of the plot, which displays a satire of unusual humor.

John Emerson, the director of various Fairbanks hits, has turned out one of the triumphs of his career in this latest subject by Anita Loos and advance reports indicate that "In Again—Out Again" will add many new admirers to "Doug's" long list of friends, not only because of its typical Fairbanks theme, but for the reason that its appeal is probably of wider scope than anything in which he has as yet appeared.

Because of the various twists of the story disclosing many surprises the details of the plot must needs be kept secret in order to get the greatest benefit out of the picture, but suffice it to say that the Fairbanks-Emerson-Loos combination has left no stone unturned in its effort to break all previous records. Staged in New Jersey the subject offers a mixture of rural scenes the humor of which are accentuated by the smiling "Doug" in the characterization of his role, that of Teddy, a red-blooded young man, who, it would seem, would rather remain in jail than out of it.

WE ASK YOU TO COMPARE MODART CORSETS Front Laced WITH ANY OTHER CORSETS

We ask you to compare for—quality. We ask you to compare for—lines. We ask you to compare for—workmanship.

And when you have given it a thorough, impartial test by wearing it—we will leave it to your judgment whether or not there is any other front laced corset in the Modart class. We chose to specialize on the Modart Front Laced Corset, to feature it in our advertising, to recommend it to our customers—only after a thorough study and search of the corset field. And only after we were convinced that no other front laced corset compared with Modart in quality and fine fitting features, did we choose them.

Our expert, scientific corset fitting service always at your free disposal
