"GOD'S COUNTRY AND THE WOMAN," THRILLING STORY OF THE NORTH

"God's Country and the Woman" is a special Vitagraph Blue Ribbon feature that is bound to take its place among the greatest motion picture plays yet produced. It is an eight reeler and was photographed in the deep snows of Great Bear Valley, up in the San Bernardino mountains of Southern California.

Bear Valley is 9,000 feet above sea level and is reached by a dog road over which Rollin S. Sturgeon and his Vitagraph players journeyed to camp for six months while filming this photoplay which has to do with the law of virtue in the great Northwest.

William Duncan, George Holt and Nell Shipman are the principals who enact the drama of a girl whose mother is overpowered by a villain and gives birth to a child in the absence of her husband. As The Woman, Nell Shipman does some of the best acting of her career.

Dog trains going full tilt up hill and down and a series of great human adventures holding together in perfect cohesion a wonderful story, make "God's Country and the Woman" a film masterpiece. This big special production has been secured for presentation at the Star Theatre for Sunday and Monday.
