"WHAT makes the OWL so good?" a smoker asks.

There are several reasons. But first of all comes the million dollar supply of mellowing leaf that is always in reserve for the OWL.

That "sureifies" the OWL'S mellow flavor. All the equipment and experience of the OWL factories go to bring out that fine flavor in the best way, in every OWL you buy.

JOSEPH NOTES

Joseph, Ore., Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Mrs. Max Wilson accompanied her husband to institute at Baker last week.

Alonzo Dunn of Enterprise was a visitor at the home of his friend, Raymond Cook, last week-end.

A new system has been installed at the M. E. Sunday school where in the "Card System" is used instead of the old record books.

Mrs. M. Evans is a visitor at Wallowa this week.

Arthur S. Rudd was in Enterprise last week attending to his subscription business there.

An especially big run of travelling men is being enjoyed by the local hotels just at present as winter orders are being made now.

The big, new house which is being erected by F. D. McCully on Mill street is nearing completion and certainly is a beauty, with its great white columns, sun porches and many windows. This is the only colonial style house in Joseph and it certainly is to be admired.

Drew Boggan taking advantage of the school vacation last week made a visit to his grandfather's home in Anacostia, Washington. After staying there for a few days Drew persuaded his grandfather, Major Boggan, to come back to Joseph with him and make a visit here. The two arrived here last Sunday evening.

A. H. Rudd returned this week from a surveying trip to the North End of the county where he completed several important surveys near the Washington State line.

John Murry is a new student in the Joseph High School this week where he has entered as a freshman.

J. K. Marlin has obtained a position as cook in the Enterprise City Hotel.

On Tuesday of this week several letters were read in student assembly from boys who are now in Uncle Sam's service but who formerly were in the Joseph high school student body.

Peter Boudan was in town on business the first of this week.

At the last Sunday school election in the M. E. Sunday school E. A. Poilock was re-elected superintendent. Hugh Wilson, librarian, and Mrs. A. H. Rudd, superintendent of the primary department. A young ladies class was formed and is to be taught by Miss Westall. Sunday school teacher's training will be instituted in the class.

Several gentlemen have been arrested recently by City Marshal Patton for violating the traffic ordinance.

Letters from a few Joseph soldier boys inform interested parties that Floyd Allen, Sam Cole, Verne Martin and Maurice Elen are at American Lake, Everett Miller is at Fort Bliss, Texas and Clarence Carpenter at Des Moines. All report that they like the work and are not sorry that they entered the service of Uncle Sam.

Rev. Cook spoke to the student body of the High school on Wednesday of this week.

M. V. Knight is moving in to his house on Main street which has just been vacated by Grover Swaggart and family. M. V. says that he intends to winter in Joseph instead of traveling around the country.

A. M. Rannels and wife and H. V. Kaddler accompanied by E. Link and wife of Enterprise went on a hunting trip out at Chestnutsum.

J. P. Desler formerly agent at of the Wallowa Creamery company has resigned his position with the Mutual company and is now agent of the Wallowa Creamery company. He is now located in the building back of the First National Bank. Luster Estes is up from his home on the Innaha River to attend the Joseph high school as a Junior.

Mrs. Spence Lozier is seriously ill at her home on Prairie Creek.

James Dalton and brother, Grant, and Thomas Green of North Powder went hunting out in the north end of the county with Fred Green of Joseph.

Miss Lola Warnock left Tuesday for Portland, where she will take a course in telegraphy there.

F. D. McCully is sporting a new Vellie Motor Truck this week. Mr. McCully will use the truck in his mill business and as the Joseph Mill is now running day and night the truck will come in very handy.

Mrs. Thomas of Portland is clerking in McCully Men's store in place of Mrs. Rose Parent.

Robert Wright is just recovering from a surgical operation which was performed recently.

Mrs. C. McFetridge will soon return home after submitting to an operation at the Hospital recently.

The "Seaside" Hotel have discontinued their dining room service.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewster, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.—Adv.

ELGIN NEWS NOTES.

Elgin, Oct. 19.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. Ray Cope, well known people of Elgin, left last week for Mount Carmel, Ill., where they expect to make their future home. Mrs. Cope is the only daughter of the local postmaster, Mr. Robert Blumenstein.

Lucian Shelton, a well known Elginman, returned last week from Anchorage, Alaska, where he has played baseball for several months. Mr. Shelton is now in Baker where he will remain for some time.

Mrs. Catherine Zweifel, an old pioneer of Union County, is visiting her sons who live in Elgin. Mrs. Zweifel's home is in Summerville.

De Loss Austin and family returned to Elgin recently from Barber, Idaho. They will make their future home in Elgin.

C. I. Hazen, L. Golding and L. Tuttle, were business visitors to La Grande last week.

Last Friday and Saturday, two very entertaining plays were given in the opera house by the Richardson and Talbert Company. The plays were both very much appreciated and well patronized.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gettings motored to La Grande last Sunday.

Miss Frances Barnett, a student of the Elgin High School, visited friends in La Grande last Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Leota Holmes, a teacher in the Flora schools, spent several days visiting her sister Miss Edna Holmes, who is attending the Elgin high school.

Word received from M. E. Hompage, who lately joined the Third Oregon Infantry band, states that he is now located at Camp Greene, in North Carolina, and that he is at steady drill and practice.

Mr. F. Hatfield was brought home last Friday from the Grande Ronde Hospital. His general condition is much improved, but his arm is in a very serious condition.

Mr. E. G. Baily was a visitor in Pendleton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brack is visiting in Elgin from Palmer Camp.

Mr. C. T. Yentzen, a well known man of Elgin, has purchased the Elgin Bakery from Mr. Jesse Crum.

Dr. E. O. Wilson, a local dentist, and Mr. Arthur Hallgarth returned from Portland Sunday morning where they enjoyed a visit to the Grand Lodge assembly of the K. of P. Mr. Hallgarth holds the office of Grand Prelate.

The Elgin citizens had the privilege of hearing two very noted orators of hearing two very noted men speak on the Second Liberty Loan Thursday at the City Opera House. A. C. Spencer, the counsel of the O.-W. R. & N. railroad, and Phil Metsehan, son of the Imperial hotel proprietor in Portland, brought a message which will awaken the responsibility and sense of duty which rests upon the shoulders of the American people today.

The vacation given to the school children last week on account of the Teachers' Institute, which was held at Baker seems to have invigorated the pupils. The roll call in the High School was answered in full, and very few absentees were reported in the grades. All through the month which ended October 6, the total number in attendance was 130 boys and 156 girls, and only an absence of 8 per cent was reported during the entire month. All pupils are progressing splendidly, and led by the jovial and ever sympathetic superintendent, the school is held by a bond of helpful comradeship.

WALLOWA NEWS NOTES.

Wallowa, Oct. 18.—(Special.)—Mr. Bill Allen and bride, Miss Bessie Swain, are staying at Mrs. A. C. Tuttle's home for the present.

Mr. J. C. Hall will leave Wednesday afternoon for Portland, where he has been working in the shipyards all summer. He will expect his family to follow him in about two weeks; they have resided here for about eight years.

Coley Wray and Marion Macrae, two young men left Wallowa Tuesday for the shipyards in Portland. They will stop in Umatilla or thereabouts and wait for Mr. Hall, who will get them a position. There are several others who will go if work can be found.

There are not many students in school this year. Many are working with the crops in different places. Several will not be in until Christmas and several more not for a few weeks. Lots of potatoes are ready to dig here and a good crop is expected. Many people have potatoes and there does not seem to be a set price on them though it is said that they are higher up the valley where the potatoes are still green.

The first snowstorm of the year fell Tuesday and a sharp frost that night finished the potatoes which were still partly green. The snow did not stay on the ground, melting almost as fast as it fell.
