Union-Wallowa County News

NORTH POWDER NEWS

North Powder, Ore., Oct. 19.—(Special.)—North Powder is preparing for the big harvest ball tonight and is putting on her holiday dress to welcome the incoming guests. People are expected from all over Union and Baker counties. This has been an annual event in North Powder for the past few years and it has been celebrated so that people look forward to it from one year to the next. The coming one promises to eclipse all previous ones.

Pearson Brothers had a serious accident to their threshing machine recently. It is reported that some parties put either rocks or iron in the bundles of grain and when it was put through the machine it was badly broken up. Suspicions pointed to certain parties and the Union county officers were summoned but the latest report is that there are no new developments in the case. The local "Hawkshaws" seem to be as much mystified about the affair as everyone else. It is to be hoped that the guilty parties will be apprehended and brought to justice. North Powder has been free from such occurrences and we hoped to escape them entirely but it seems that we must take our turn along with the other towns.

Cold weather visited us for a short time and it seemed for a time that Old King Boreas had come to stay but he has hidden us farewell for a time and it is hoped to be for a long time.

Miss Anna Taylor who lives in the Riverdale section made final proof on her homestead on October 15. Her claim was contested sometime ago by the U. S. government on the ground that it was mineral land. This land was all designated by the U. S. government some years ago as agricultural land and on the complaint of some land shark or thief the U. S. comes in and makes the homesteader stand a contest to keep his land. Several of the homesteaders have already had to fight such contests and there is someone yet to be threshed out before the U. S. land office. If the person or persons who are causing this trouble could be found out there would sure be a warm welcome to them from the people in this section especially those who have had to fight the contests.

The farmers of this section are complaining that as the price of butter fat raises the creameries are lowering their cream tests and that they are not getting as much as they were when it was much cheaper. Some tests have been dropped from 38 to 28 in a week's time. This seems to be a common graft and the farmers are getting tired of it. Lots are disposing of all their dairy cows except what they will keep for their own use. When butter is made on the farm the merchants pay from ten to fifteen cents less on the pound than for creamery butter and the farmer must take their pay out of the store. The farmer is getting tired of being the goat and this country is going to face a butter and milk famine in a short time. The merchant pays cash for creamery butter and why not pay cash to the farmer as well? The day of reckoning is not far distant.

Siegel Heard who lives out in the Missouri Flat had a sad experience with the recent cold snap. He had the misfortune to have the engine on the combine to freeze as water had been left in it and broke all four cylinders. The machine was taken to Baker where it was repaired and the outfit will soon be at work again. Mr. Heard has had several hundred acres cut with the machine and had a hundred acres yet to cut.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.—Adv.

and Miss Anna Taylor were La Grande visitors on Monday.

Mr. McGregor lost a valuable horse recently from blood poisoning. The animal got a scratch on its head which became infected and in a few days it died. The disease advanced so rapidly that nothing could be done to check it.

Mr. Jerry Lenheart, who used to live in North Powder, but who now resides in Long Beach, Cal., has had his eyes operated on sometime ago and is now able to see very good for a person who had as poor sight as he has had. Mr. Lenheart's many friends in this vicinity hope that he may be fully restored to his sight. Mr. Lenheart is a pioneer grain man in North Powder and is well known throughout this section having been in business here for several years.

Cove will observe Food Pledge Week, Tuesday evening, October 23, with a special meeting to talk over Food Conservation. The principal speakers will be Miss May Murphy, the U. S. food demonstration agent, and County Agriculturist Paul G. Spillman. Every housewife will be asked to sign one of the Hoover Food Administration pledge cards and when the pledge is signed will receive a card which is to be displayed in the window of her home.

George Beard is in the La Grande Hospital with an attack of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Lou Paine has rented a house just back of the Baptist Church and will take possession soon. One of the school teachers will board with her.
