Letters From The Front

The following letter was received by Fred Lovett from Cal Nelson, who is at Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C.:

Dear Friend:—I know you want to know about my trip and camp, so here goes: The Oregon people were fine. At every big town we passed, we were given oats, etc., by the people. They even waited through the night for us at Ashland and Roseburg. California was not very patriotic, but I saw lots of interesting things there. We stopped at Tucson, Ariz., at 10 P. M., and went to the Y. M. C. A. for a bath. Afterwards paraded the streets led by the Oregon band.

At El Paso, Tex., the Red Cross ladies served coffee and sandwiches. At San Antonio, we had regimental parade. It sure was great. We had our U. S. and Oregon colors. Not much in Alabama, Georgia, New Mexico and South Carolina. When we arrived at Camp Greene we formed our regiment and came into camp like soldiers, band and flags leading. We were the only regiment to come into camp right. We are better equipped and trained than any other (one or two exceptions) regiment in camp. The South Dakota troops were so hard up they had to carry part of their belongings in gunny sacks. None of that in the Oregon regiment. When we came into camp the other troops sure cheered and one officer remarked that Oregon sure looked fine. Oregon can sure be proud of her troops. We drill from 7:30 A. M. to 5 P. M. Besides we have to do our washing and cleaning of guns and equipment. We are sure busy.

Please don't tire reading all this and write soon. As ever,

CAL. Our regiment has been changed, so I'll have to ask you to change my address once more. Company K, 162 Infantry, Camp Greene.

DEMAND FOR TEACHERS HAS BEEN WELL MET

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 23.—The unusual demand for teachers due to war conditions has been fairly well met in the opinion of Dr. E. D. Shelton, dean of the department of education of the University of Oregon.

The scarcity feared in the early fall owing to the large number of men teachers who entered the army and other government service no longer exists, Shelton said today. There is a shortage, however, in teachers for special subjects such as Spanish and commerce. The university could have placed 25 teachers in Spanish, but only two or three were available.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts thru the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. Sold by F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.
