GOVERNMENT DREDGE DOCKED FOR WINTER

(United Press.) LINNONTON, Ore., Oct. 23.—The gov-ernment dredge Chinook is docked here for the winter after a summer's work at the mouth of the Columbia. The Chinook has made a harbor en-trance 41 to 45 feet deep in a 1300-foot channel, which is 2000 feet wide.

RAISING MONEY TO BUY SOLDIERS BIBLES

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 23.—Money is being raised here today to buy Bibles for soldiers at Camp Lewis. The American Bible society's ap-propiation for the camp will buy Bibles for all but 8000 of the men. Local pastors are aiding in making up this deficit.

Wallowa News Notes.

WALLOWA, Oct. 21.—(Special.)—Mr. McElroy, a man who has been around town, has a baby who fell from a couch and injured its spine so that its eyes were fixed. It was taken to Dr. Roberts and when the spot was touched on its back it cried. It is not known what the doctor will do.

Mrs. Couch who has been suffer-ing from a general breakdown for several weeks is some better and it is expected that she will be up and around soon though she will not be able to do any housework.

No manual training teacher could be procured at the last attempt as they are all working in the shipyards and the Wallowa High school has de-cided that a carpenter will be gotten.

A meeting was held in the High school gymnasium Wednesday evening to boost Liberty Bonds, speeches were made by Mr. Phil Metscham and Mr. C. E. Cochran of Portland and Mr. C. T. McDaniel, chairman of Wallowa.

The drive for placing every house-wife under the new food conservation idea will probably be taken in hand by the high school students within a few days.

$7,000,000 TUNNEL FOR COLORADO RAILROAD.

(United Press.) DENVER, Oct. 23.—Construction of a $7,000,000 tunnel under James Peak—a dream of years of railroad con-struction engineers—probably will be realized in the near future, if plans to secure investment of $5,000,000 of eastern capital, negotiations for which are now under way in New York, are consummated.

The tunnel will shorten by 200 miles the present route of the Denver & Salt Lake Railroad—the "Moffat road." Two millions of capital toward the $7,000,000 required to construct the tunnel, rehabilitate the road and remove the receivership under which it is now being operated and place it on a paying basis, is assured by Colo-rado bondholders, provided the re-quired additional $5,000,000 is secur-ed.

U. S. STEEL CORPORATION BUILDING MODEL TOWN

WHITTSBURG, Ky., Oct. 23.—The United States Steel Corporation is building a model mining town in the mining district here which it is expected will have a population of 5000 by Christmas. The corporation re-cently acquired 20,000 acres of coal land in the district, with which to supply its coke ovens with 10,000 tons of coal daily.

BIGGEST BARGAIN EVER OFFERED

Every subscriber of The La Grande Observer-Star who pays a year's sub-scription to The Observer-Star from this time on at $1.50 which is the regular yearly rate for this paper, will also receive a three year's sub-scription to The Oregon Farmer with-out any extra charge.

This almost unheard of bargain is made possible by a radical reduction in the subscription rate of The Oregon Farmer for the purpose of re-leasing a large number of men from its army of agents for use in other in-dustries and in the military establish-ment.

Just read the details of this wonder-ful offer:
Observer-Star, one year $1.50
Oregon Farmer, 3 years, old price 3.00
$4.50

By the new clubbing offer, all for 1.50

Worth Their Weight in Gold.

No man can do his best when suffer-ing from backache, rheumatic pains, swollen joints, sore muscles or other symptoms of kidney trouble. B. H. Stone, 846 N. 2nd St., Reading, Pa., writes: "I contracted a most severe case of kidney trouble. I gradually grew worse and for months was un-able to attend to business. I began to use Foley Kidney Pills and soon found the pains were gone and I have had no aches since. They have been worth their weight in gold to me."

TOMMY'S WILLS SOMETIMES HUMOROUS

(United Press.) LONDON, Oct. 1.—(By Mail.)—Many strange human documents in the form of wills and last testaments are made in the trenches. Before going into battle Tommy sometimes scrawls a few words on a scrap of paper disposing of his chattels in case he gets "gone up."

Almost anything that indicates the will of the dead man is accepted as a legal will and the War Office deciphers them as best they can and puts them into effect. A Northcountry-man left the following:

"Whoever first sets eyes on this gets everything I leave, for my kith and kin are dead and gone, and I've not a friend to grieve. There's a tidy bit in the bank, you'll find, and my army pay though small. So, stranger, breath one sigh for me and you're welcome to it all."

Curiously the young sergeant who found the body and first "set eyes on" the will was awarded the property and found a tidy sum in the bank.

Some of the wills are found to be fictions. The Tommy enjoys willing to his friends vast estates, automob-iles and yachts that he doesn't pos-sess—and causing the War Office a lot of trouble.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

We your committee on resolutions on the death of brother Edward Shaw, of Chosen Friends Lodge No. 190, I. O. O. F., beg leave to submit the follow-ing:

WITHCOMBE AND McNARY WILL DISCUSS ARBITRATION

(United Press) Salem, Ore., Oct. 22.—Governor Withycombe announced today that he would discuss with Senator McNary the question of congress inaction on the compulsory arbitration law. The Governor said the legislature could not pass a workable arbitration law which would not conflict with the state con-stitution.

It pays to advertise.

When Itching Stops

There is one safe, dependable treatment that relieves itching torture and skin ir-ritation almost instantly and that cleanses and soothes the skin.

Ask any druggist for a 35c or $1 bottle of zemo and apply it as directed. Soon you will find that irritations, pimples, blackheads, eczema, blotches, ringworm and similar skin troubles will disappear.

A little zemo, the penetrating, satisfy-ing liquid, is all that is needed, for it banishes most skin eruptions and makes the skin soft, smooth and healthy. The E. W. Rose Co., Cleveland, O.
