JOSEPH NEWS NOTES

JOSEPH, Ore., Oct. 24.—(Special.)—Last Friday, October 19, H. L. Fisher, an auto agent of Joseph, was going to Enterprise with John Proebstel in Mr. Proebstel's new car. When they reached Ross Leslie's farm they were going at a high rate of speed, an accident occurred and the car is said to have turned over several times. Mr. Proebstel was killed instantly while Fisher was seriously injured but is now well on the road to recovery. Mr. Proebstel was a prominent Prairie Creek farmer and was well liked here. He was buried by his brother Odd Fellows last Sunday, October 21, John Frederick Proebstel was born May 18, 1872 in Union County, Oregon. He was married April 13, 1913, to Asenath Baltazore in Enterprise. Two sisters, Mrs. D. C. Tucker, Mrs. D. C. Tucker, Mrs. James Ester, his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Proebstel and his wife survive him.

Miss Clara Redmond and Mr. J. C. Edsell were married last Saturday morning in Joseph leaving on the afternoon train for a honeymoon trip in Western Oregon. The many friends of the happy pair wish them all kinds of good luck.

The Red Cross work in Joseph will be confined this week to graze work. New Captains have been appointed they are: Mrs. A. J. Richardson, Mrs. W. Pittenger, Mrs. A. H. Rudd, Mrs. F. H. Gaulke, Mrs. A. M. Runnella and Mrs. L. A. Caviness. The home knitting work will be supervised by Mrs. Aug. White.

The report cards have not been given out for the first six weeks as they have not been forth coming from the printer yet.

A new nement floor is being put in the basement of the M. E. church where the Primary Department of the Sunday school holds their school. Last Sunday no Sunday school was held in this department because of this.

Miss Strachan has just received material for debate and already the ambitious ones in the student body are looking into the question. Joseph hopes to make a good showing toward state championship again.

Last Friday evening the girls of the C. I. C. Class of the M. E. Sunday school gave the boys a party in the basement of the church. Games were played after which came a delicious luncheon in which pumpkin pie with whipped cream was a big part. All the young people present report a fine time.

Last Thursday Liberty Loan speakers from La Grande and Portland came in and urged Joseph to buy the Bonds. A good crowd heard the speeches and responded liberally by purchasing the bonds.

Last Saturday the physical geography class of the High school walked around the lake with their instructor, Miss Helen Wastell. The rocks, streams, mountains etc. were studied and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Louis Stevenson will stay around Joseph this winter and take subscriptions for the Spokesman Review instead of going to school. Mr. Stevenson says that he may take up his work again "sometime."

Work has ceased for some time on the new bridge as no steel can be procured. Work will begin as soon as it gets here as the concrete bases are all ready.

For a night or two recently night prowlers have roamed certain streets here and disturbed the peace by ringing door bells, singing, running and keeping people awake generally.

Mr. Chas. McAllister and family drove down from Enterprise Tuesday and visited several friends.

Mr. Peterson of the Portland Forest Reserve is in Wallowa. He is well known here as he was in this department for some time.

Mrs. Neil Cameron and Mrs. J. P. Morelock and Mrs. Harvey Harris will start for Cove Wednesday morning to gather apples. They will go in the car.

SAFE REMEDY FOR CHILDREN.

Every parent is, or should be, careful in giving medicine to children. Chas. Baker, Brownsville, Tex., writes: "For some years past I have used Foley's Honey and Tar and have found it especially efficient for bad coughs of my children. I always recommend it to my friends as a safe remedy for children as it contains no opiates. My wife would not think of using any other kind of a cough medicine as it is certain to bring quick and lasting relief." It checks croup. Sold everywhere.—Adv. eod.
