ARCADE

MARY PICKFORD AT ARCADE TODAY AND TOMORROW.

One of the most pretentious film offerings ever presented at the Arcade Theatre will make its initial appearance there today when Mary Pickford is seen in her newest Art-craft picture, "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm." "Little Mary" with her effervescent youth, her genuine comedy and her wonderful knowledge of dramatic technique, is the ideal person to immortalize the little girl of the New England village, who though dominated by two crabbed old aunts, does not permit it to crush her spirits.

As a little girl of a New England village, she goes to live with two old maiden aunts. How she fights with the Smellie children, sells soap to get a lamp for Mrs. Simpson, gives a circus in a barn from which she is routed

Why the aunts and how she meets Adam Ladd and how after graduating from school they are again brought together is all brought out in typical Pickford style. This picture discloses another "Poor Little Rich Girl" type of vehicle for "Little Mary," offering the famous screen queen a character, however, that carries with it even greater charm than that presented in her well known Eleanor Gates play. As the nationally known Rebecca, Mary will add greatly to her vast popularity as the darling of the cinema in a human subject that plays upon the heart of every child and every person that remembers childhood days, making it a photoplay that is enjoyed by men, women and children alike.

Staged under the direction of Marshall Neilan, the capable young producer whose presentation of "The Bottle Imp" and other notable successes disclosed exceptional talents, Mary Pickford's new picture offers in addition to its other merits, one of the screen's most artistic achievements. Frances Marion, one of the foremost scenario writers in the industry, adapted the subject for motion picture presentation. In the cast are such popular players as Eugene O'Brien, Heles Jerome Eddy, Charles Ogle, Marjorie Daw, Mayme Kelso, Jane Wolff, Josephine Crowell, Jack MacDonald, Violet Wilkey, Frank Turner, Kate Toncray and Emma Gerdes.

Mrs. Smith Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"I have had more or less stomach trouble for eight or ten years," writes Mrs. G. H. Smith, Brewerton, N. Y. "When suffering from attacks of indigestion and heaviness after eating, one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets have always relieved me. I have also found them a pleasant laxative." These tablets tone up the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. If you are troubled with indigestion give them a trial, get well and stay well.—Adv.
