News Of La Grande

L. K. Harlan III—L. K. Harlan of the Observer staff, is confined to his bed at the Foley Hotel, with an attack of fever.

Cecil Galloway Here—County Commissioner Cecil Galloway was here today and will leave tomorrow for Pendleton on business.

Home on Furlough—Son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Bradway, Mr. W. A. Bradway, of the U. S. S. Saratoga, is home on a ten days' furlough.

Duck Shooting Not Good—Duck shooting has not been very good this week nearly all of the sportsmen reporting the birds as very scarce. Two parties however, had fair bags yesterday, Joe Hansen and Garfield Simmonds, also Joe Eagan and George Young. Only one mallard however, was in the bags, the birds being mostly teal, butterballs and widgeon. Quite a few plover are coming in lately according to the reports.

Visiting Here—Mrs. M. D. Chambers and daughter Miss Myla, arrived today on No. 17, to be the guests for the day of Rev. and Mrs. Upton H. Gibbs. Mrs. Chambers is the wife of Archdeacon Chambers, of Portland, and is a prominent member of the Maccabee order in that city. She has just returned from attending the Woman's Benefit Association of the Maccabees, as delegate for this state, which met at Port Huron, Mich.

Mac Wood Is "Granddaddy"—Mac Wood, manager of the Golden Rule and ex-city president, is a grand daddy. With beaming face and sparkling eyes, he proclaimed the glad tidings to his many friends up and down the Rialto of La Grande's business world at an early hour this morning. The occasion for Mr. Wood's exceeding great joy happened this morning when Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Recken of Portland became the proud parents of a fine boy. The grandmother is already there, and Mac predicts that business will call him to Portland soon and while there he will have an honest to goodness romp with Master Recken. Mrs. Recken is perhaps better remembered as Lucrece Wood, popular in La Grande social and school affairs.

You will have the time of your life at the souvenir Halloween dance at Rex Hall, Tuesday, Oct. 30. The best floor and the only jazz band. 10-26-3

Personal And Society

On Wednesday a pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. Byer, of Miss Clara Benjamin to Mr. Enoch Johnson. The house was nicely decorated, carnations being the flower for the dining room. The Rev. H. L. Ford, of the Christian Church, officiating. A dainty supper being served immediately after the ceremony. The bride was dressed in a beautiful traveling suit. The happy couple went to Pendleton for the honeymoon, where a sister of the groom lives. Miss L. Johnson, a sister of the groom and the family of Mrs. Byer being the only ones present. We wish the couple a very happy and prosperous life. May they live to celebrate their golden wedding.

Mrs. William Bollons entertained the Lucky Thirteen Club yesterday at her home. The prize was won by Mrs. E. T. Andrews who presented it to Mrs. Bruce Dennis, the guest of honor. The next meeting of the club, two weeks from yesterday, will be held at the home of Mrs. William Ash on O Avenue.

Mrs. Alice Glover of Union was in La Grande Wednesday.

Mrs. A. V. Andrews and Miss Margaret Anson entertained the Kaffee Klath at the Andrew home on Adams avenue, this afternoon.

MORE MONEY THAN EVER before will be in circulation in this country during the period of the war—and more people than ever before will find themselves able to buy homes. Real estate owners should realize that buyers may be found, through properly advertising real estate offerings, more readily than in usual times.

Don't forget the Royal Neighbors Cafeteria Supper tonight, 6:30, at K. P. Hall.
