FILM STARS PLAY FOOTBALL BETWEEN "SHOTS."

Jack Pickford, brother of "our Mary" and and famous screen star in his own rights, is now appearing in the Paramount screened version of Owen Johnson's "The Varmint," a Paramount picture which is to appear on Friday and Saturday at the Arcade Theatre.

Known as "The Varmint" for his general pestiferousness and fiendish pranks, Dink Stover (Jack Pickford) gradually becomes a great favorite and leader among his fellows, especially when it develops that he has a positive genius for football and has won a very important game with a rival school.

The football scenes were much to the liking of young Mr. Pickford who has many a touchdown to his credit at the St. Francis Military Academy, New York, where he went to school and played on the school team.

At his request a full game was staged with the two opposing teams made up of members of the cast and various studio officials. Various of the directors and male stars who happened to be off duty at the time (and it was noticeable how many were off duty while the football scenes were being taken) acted as coaches and referees. As many of these gentlemen had left their school and college days and football many days behind them and insisted upon using the same rules that "our team" used, many a delightful argument or scrimmage occurred as the various stars of the motion picture firmament disported themselves upon the gridiron.

DOROTHY PHILLIPS AT ARCADE TONIGHT ONLY.

Ennor Crawford, who dabbled in sensationalism, allowed her perversity to lead her into a strange recompense for the love of an honest man. She wrote a sneering, immoral one-sided satire, making the man who loved her with a clean heart its target. From her cigarette smoking and cocktail-imbibing associates she gain-praise and applause; from the man who loved her came an imperishable proof of his devotion. He married her, and then began a contest in the girl's heart between duty to her husband and her longing for her old care-free life. Out of this situation Bluebird photoplays have created a drama of intense interest, entitled "Bondage," to be presented at the Arcade Theatre tonight only with Dorothy Phillips the star.

PENNY SHORTAGE ON COAST

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 1.—New Government war taxes have caused a penny shortage on the Pacific Coast, Seattle bankers declared today.

The penny, once despised, is coming into general use. Banks here have sent frantic appeals for big shipments of pennies to the mint, but the government evidently has been unable to meet the demand.

One bank reported today that customers are asking for several hundred dollars worth of pennies every day.

Reasonable prices for commodities are possible only when their production and distribution are on a large scale. Buy what you need NOW—and you will aid in fighting rising prices.

Electrical Workers Strike Is Halted

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.—Federal authorities announced that the intervention of the President and the Federal Mediation Committee had halted the Coast-wide strike of electrical workers. Orders countermanding or delaying the strike order will be forwarded this afternoon.

Husbands Rise Up.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1.—He may be henpecked, but the lowly Portland husband can, when occasion demands, arise in his might and assert his rights.

When Miss Anne Martin, militant suffragist from Reno, Nevada, asked for Oregon recruits for the White House picket lines at a meeting of the Portland civic league, the above mentioned L. P. H. promptly and determinedly—and loudly—sat on the proposition.

Vale—The Harney and Malheur County wool clip for 1917 is estimated at 2,000,000 pounds, at an average of 50 cents makes values of crops at $1,000,000.

Complaint Almost Gone.

"Foley's Honey and Tar is great," writes L. W. Day, 65 Campbell Ave., E. Detroit, Mich. "It relieves bronchitis quickly. My complaint has almost gone and I hope never to have it again." The experience of thousands proves there is no better remedy for coughs, colds or croup. The genuine costs no more than substitutes, and this old reliable family cough medicine should be in every home every winter. Insist on Foley's Honey and Tar—time tried and never failing. Ad.

A LESSON FOR THE AMERICAN HOUSEWIFE

An interesting example of French thrift is here illustrated, an example which might well be copied by our American housewife. French people rarely waste pea shells. After shelling the peas the shells are skinned and cooked along with the peas. They make a dish that is liked more than the pea itself by a great many people.

NOTICE

WE ASK YOU TO COMPARE MODART CORSETS Front Laced WITH ANY OTHER CORSETS

We ask you to compare for—quality. We ask you to compare for—lines. We ask you to compare for—workmanship.

And when you have given it a thorough, impartial test by wearing it—we will leave it to your judgment whether or not there is any other front laced corset in the Modart class. We chose to specialize on the Modart Front Laced Corset, to feature it in our advertising, to recommend it to our customers—only after a thorough study and search of the corset field. And only after we were convinced that no other front laced corsets compared with Modart in quality and fine fitting features, did we choose them.

Our expert, scientific corset fitting service always at your free disposal
