ELGIN NOTES.

ELGIN, Oct. 31.—(Special.)—Miss Grace Wagoner, a young lady of Elgin, returned from Salem last Friday where she has been visiting her grandmother for the past Summer. She will enter the Elgin High School soon.

The Elgin football team was defeated last Saturday in the game played with La Grande. All were proud of the fight the boys put up and many cheers were extended to them at the close of the game. The Seniors will give the team a Halloween spread next Wednesday evening in the domestic science department. The High School faculty will be present.

All of the High School pupils gladly laid aside their work and took their places in the assembly room Monday morning, where Superintendent Clawson introduced an ever welcome visitor Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe. Mrs. Ivanhoe was accompanied by Mr. Spillman, the County Agriculturist. Both Mrs. Ivanhoe and Mr. Spillman gave very helpful explanations of the Food Conservation movement, which was followed by a patriotic speech by our Superintendent. In the closing of the High School gave 15 rabs for the boys in the trenches.

Many La Grande High School girls accompanied the football team to Elgin last Saturday. The Red Cross dance given last Saturday evening was very successful. The hall was very artistically decorated, and lovely refreshments were served. All enjoyed the music by the new orchestra.

Many Elgin people attended the apple ball given in Imbler last Friday. All reported a lovely time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Masterson returned Thursday morning from Portland where Mrs. Masterson was given medical attention.

Mrs. Clay Reinhart visited in La Grande last week.

Miss Gladys Hill, a popular young lady of Elgin, was married to Warren Metcalf Saturday, October 20. They will reside on a farm in the foothill region.

Mrs. H. E. Bickers, of Pendleton, and Mrs. Lee Teuch, of Portland, are visiting their sister Mrs. C. E. Bean.

Mr. Bert Woods, a well known pioneer of this country died at the Hot Lake Hospital early Monday morning, as a result of a surgical operation. Mr. Woods had driven stage in the Yellowstone Park for many years.

Mr. Goddard, a farmer near Elgin, died last night after an illness of two weeks with typhoid fever. Mr. Goddard had just purchased the Bert Hug farm a short time ago and had only been in Elgin a few weeks. He is survived by a wife and baby.

Mr. E. C. Baily left Elgin some time ago to again take up his work in the school room. Mr. Baily is teaching at Prineville.

Mr. Otto Barnes, who has been visiting his people in Elgin, returned last week to his training camp in New Jersey.

NORTH POWDER NEWS

NORTH POWDER, Ore., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Huddleston & Son have purchased a stock of goods in Union which will be moved to North Powder and put in their large store here. This firm carries a large stock now and is adding to it all the time.

Memorial services were held at the Cheesman Funeral home at Oskaloosa, Iowa, on October 19, in honor of Wallace Minnick who died at the Hot Lake Sanitorium on September 17. Mr. Minnick's body was cremated in Portland and the ashes were shipped to Oskaloosa, Iowa, where the Memorial services were held.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists. Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

sonic Lodge held the memorial services for him. He had been a member of that lodge for some years. His wife is now at that place with her father.

H. O. Gorham has sold all of his real estate in this part of the country. Crant Dalton purchased all the ground on which the Gorham & Rothchild store stand together with the buildings. He also bought part of the ground on which the postoffice stands. Wyley Dalton bought the ground on which the printing office stands. George Ito bought all the land in lot three with the exception of the EO. substation. Miss Avis Chute bought the lot back of the Chute grocery. Mr. Gorham sold his farm on Wolfe Creek to his sons, Bryan, William and Arthur Gorham. Bill Gorham purchased some timber land and the rest of Mr. Gorham's real estate in town with the exception of the home which Mr. Gorham gave to his youngest daughter Monta. Mr. Gorham is taking a long needed rest after a busy life and will take an extended trip through California and some of the Eastern states. Mr. Gorham's many friends wish him every happiness in his playtime.

Another industry will be added to the lists of North Powder's pay roll. The E. O. Zeek Lumber Co., will soon be in full operation on the North Powder river about twelve miles west of North Powder. This company has secured valuable holdings in timber and are now at work getting things ready to make a record run. The lumber will be hauled into town and prepared for market at their planer. Mr. Zeek says that they will make a specialty of having dry lumber on hand so as to accommodate the local trade as well as the shippers. Mr. Zeek and his associates are practical lumber men as they have followed this business for years around Union and the Grande Ronde valley. North Powder is only too glad to welcome Mr. Zeek and his associates. The company will employ from fifteen to twenty men. They are planning a big run as lumber is in big demand.

Mumps and measles seem to be the order of the day for those who have been so unfortunate as not to have had them. Two of the Younce children and others are reported to be having them as well.

Mr. Fred Bull and two children are sick with measles. Unless some precautions are taken to enforce a quarantine there may be an epidemic of both measles and mumps.

Camp Lewis Notes.

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 1.—The first games in the camp football schedule were played this week.

Twelve games are scheduled each week during the winter. Six games will be played each Wednesday afternoon and Sunday.

With a number of ex-college stars in training here, fast games are expected. Each regiment will be represented with one team and the series of games will determine the camp championship.

Pet alligators do not thrive in Washington—particularly this time of year. The Solano county, Cal., delegation bought the alligator on the way north, and now their mascot is threatened with an untimely end because of cold weather.

Tradesmen in camp will probably soldier with their tools instead of a gun. A census of all men here is being taken and the information gathered about each man includes his trade, experience and special ability.

Marshall in Portland.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1.—Thomas R. Marshall, vice president of the United States, arrived in Portland yesterday.

Following a trip over the Columbia River highway, the vice president was the guest of honor at a reception in the Hotel Multnomah. Although Marshall arrived in Portland at 7 o'clock thousands turned out to welcome him.

Little Ones and Old Ones.

James Edwards, 208 Harriette St., Montgomery, Ala., writes: "I sleep all night and cough but little. I feel like a new man now from using Foley's Honey and Tar. My whole family is using it now—the little ones and the old ones. It has cured our coughs and broken our colds." Foley's Honey and Tar clears stopped air passages, removes phlegm, heals raw inflamed membranes, soothes sore chest, makes difficult breathing easy, and relieves those deep-seated, racking coughs. Pro-German Squirrels.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 1.—Pro-German squirrels in eastern Oregon are fighting the food conservation movement.

Thousands of bushels of grain have been wasted in the Inland Empire by squirrels, according to Fred Van Horn a producer of the Echo section, who was in Portland recently.

Farmers and state food authorities will scrap the squirrels.

Central Appreciates Your Kindness

There are three operators concerned in every telephone call—you, the party you are talking to and "central."

All three parties must co-operate if the best service is to be had.

The telephone operators are human, just as you are.

Being human, they appreciate kindness and courtesy, but resent unkindness and discourtesy just as any of us do.

Kindness begets kindness, courtesy creates courtesy and patience encourages patience.

If you wish to get the best out of your telephone, make it a point to be kind and courteous to the operators.
