Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson and Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Andrews entertained the evening Kaffee Klatsch Friday night at the Richardson home. Mrs. J. Van Buren won the ladies' prize and George Cochran the men's.

The Hill Sew So Club was entertained by Mrs. W. D. McDonald Friday afternoon. The time was spent in knitting and crocheting. Mrs. Snapp rendered several selections on the piano after which dainty refreshments were served. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Will Landrum.

The ladies of the Neighborhood Club will tender a reception to Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall, wife of Vice President Marshall, Monday afternoon from 3 to 5 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. George T. Cochran, 702 Washington avenue. The ladies of La Grande are cordially invited to come and meet the second lady of the land.

Miss Elizabeth Meyers entertained a number of ladies last night at the home of Mrs. W. Fowler. The evening was spent in needle work and music. Decorations were in Halloween colors. Those present were: Miss Anderson, Miss Bureau, Mrs. Kaller, Mrs. Stringham, Mrs. M. A. Adams, Mrs. W. Fowler and Miss Meyers. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The Pythian Sisters entertained their members and a number of invited guests with a Spook Party, Halloween, at the home of Mrs. J. R. Oliver. The spooks entered the house through windows and doors and proceeded to the Gypsy Tent where Miss Bollman revealed their fate, then to the Ghost room where Giles Harnden did the stunts of a real ghost. In a dark and forbidding corner, in the witch's den. Mrs. Oliver, as witch, plied her magic. When the hour for supper arrived, the ghosts bought their partners with gold nuggets (beans) and after partaking of refreshments were entertained by piano solos by Stella Graybill and vocal solos by Mrs. Orrie Gardner. At a late hour a happy party of ghosts retreated to their homes for rest.

Our Entire Energy

Is concentrated with "one sole determination" which is "to give the public better service, more honest values and lower prices than any other store in the county." We sell you what you need, when you need it worst, at lower prices than the so-called cut-price sales pretend to.

We are satisfied with a smaller profit—we let the volume take care of our profits.

DO YOUR BIT—DON'T DEPLORE THE WAR—END IT.
