GEORGE ADE TELLS SIX YEAR OLDS TO SET GOOD EXAMPLE

By GEORGE ADE
Article I.

Can a mere child be of service to his or her country while we are trying to make the Kaiser behave? Undoubtedly.

How?
By observing the conduct of weak-kneed, hysterical and complaining adults and then being just as different from them as possible.

This war is neither a joke nor a protracted funeral.

You will notice that some of the older people refuse to accept it as a fact, while others move about in a blue funk, exclaiming, between sobs, that the U. S. A. is going to the bows-
-ways.

Let the very young children set their elders a good example by remaining calm but determined.

If you pick up the morning paper and read that the U-boats bagged 17 ships instead of the customary 15 and the Canadians captured only one line of trenches instead of two, do not shake your head and declare that the Germans never can be licked.

Set a good example to your fathers and mothers and uncles and aunts by renewing your faith daily, in spite of an occasional set back.

Quote to them words of Abraham Lincoln: "Let us have faith that right makes might and in that faith let us, to the end, dare to do our duty."

You might remind your grown-up relatives that all during the Civil War the northern states harbored a good many well-meaning people who went about moaning that the Union never could be preserved and we had better accept peace at any price.

These invertebrates (an invertebrate children, is a creature with a string of macaroni where the backbone should be)—these spineless ones were willing to let certain states secede. The blacks were to remain in slavery. Our flag was to be lowered. Anything to avoid a fight to a finish.

Even after the battle of Gettysburg when the fortunes of war began to favor the North, just as they are now favoring the allies, every community had to put up with a few of the whiners and faultfinders who belittled each victory and magnified each reverse.

Your grandfather can tell you about these peace lovers who helped to prolong the war by failing to give united and loyal support to the soldiers. If it should happen that your grandfather was on of these "peace-at-any-price" advocates, doubtless he will change the subject and talk about something else.

Even if you are less than six years of age, surely you can understand that the issues involved in this dreadful war must be stilled and settled right before the world may hope for abiding peace.

Therefore, if anyone asks you what you thing about the war, reply as follows:

"President Wilson was right when he said that the world must be made safe for democracy. The American people have no desire to destroy Germany or prevent it from regaining commercial importance. They want Germany to restore the stolen property and go home in a chastised mood. They want to jam the knowledge into every close-cropped Prussian head that just because a man owns a high-priced automatic gun and has a lot of ammunition and a college education he has no right to go out and shoot up his neighbors. The American people are hoping to make it clear to the Kaiser and the crown prince and the various square-jawed Hindenburgs that it's highly improper to form a partnership with God for purposes of murder, and then treat God as a silent partner. As to the final outcome, the battle of the Marne was the beginning of the end. For 2000 years all the big events of history have marked an irresistible advance toward the establishment of democracy. When the Germans failed in their mad rush in 1914, it meant that an All Wise Providence and the laws of evolution were not to be thwarted by a military despot with a bristling mustache. Germany can not win and therefore Germany must lose. The end of blood shed and sacrifice and widespread terror will come as soon as the United States of America begins to strike aggressive blows. The more men we send to the front, the fewer we will lose. Our great enemy at present is indecision. Our strongest ally is speed. Our most needful watchword is faith. We are going to end the war and then sit at the council table to repress greed and curb injustice."

Of course the foregoing will sound rather bifaluting to come from a six-year-old child, but it will be the truth, and the truth is needed in large doses at present, especially by people more than six years of age.

That will be all for today, children. You may run along and play.

Pull-U-Out
Consists of a winding drum, lever crank, 40 ft. of steel cable, two 7 ft. chains and 3 stakes. Weighs only 28 lbs. and fits in space 4x8x14 in.

Here's the most wonderful little machine ever invented for farmers. It combines two things—a rescuing device for your automobile and a machine that will do hundreds of lifting and pulling jobs on the farm, easily and quickly. It saves a world of back ache and is worth its weight in gold.

Pull-U-Out fits into the tool box of your auto, yet is so powerful that it will pull a 5000 lb. auto out of hub-deep mud without delay, expense, trouble or damage to car or clothes. Lifts 2000 lbs. dead weight; pulls 100,000 lbs. on wheels.

No motorist, however experienced and careful, should venture out, even on the best of roads, without Pull-U-Out, because accident come suddenly—without any warning. Trouble is lurking everywhere. You may get stuck in the mud, skid into a ditch or overturn. It is then that you will bless the day you bought a Pull-U-Out. With powerful, inexpensive little Pull-U-Out in your tool box you need never fear road conditions; you can go wherever your business or fancy leads you. If you meet with an accident you know that you have immediate and efficient help right at hand. Don't wait for an accident to make you wish you'd bought a Pull-U-Out—buy one today.

Does Wonders on the Farm

Wherever there's any heavy lifting or pulling to do, use Pull-U-Out. For loading and unloading wagons, scalding hogs, quartering beef, lifting wagon beds and hay racks on and off the running gear, stretching wire fences, loading baled hay, bales of cotton, sacked grain and other heavy things, Pull-U-Out is marvelous. It is light, portable and strong. Easily moved by one man from one place to another. Does lifting and pulling jobs that usually take from 3 to a dozen men.

Test it at our risk—Pull-U-Out is shipped and sold on the make-good basis. Interesting booklet—free. Tells all about Pull-U-Out, how and why it works.
