Central Appreciates Your Kindness

There are three operators concerned in every telephone call—you, the party you are talking to and "central."

All three parties must co-operate if the best service is to be had.

The telephone operators are human, just as you are.

Being human, they appreciate kindness and courtesy, but resent unkindness and discourtesy just as any of us do.

Kindness begets kindness, courtesy creates courtesy and patience encourages patience.

If you wish to get the best out of your telephone, make it a point to be kind and courteous to the operators.

HOG INCREASE IS NECESSARY.

Sows Must Be Bred at This Time in Large Numbers in Order to Insure Meat Supply

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—To win the war we need more meat. To get an increased meat supply quickly hog breeding must be increased materially throughout the country, and in certain states an increase of from 25 to 50 per cent in the number of hogs is recommended by the United States Department of Agriculture.

The situation is of great importance. We must have plenty of meat for our armies and the armies of the allies in the field, and sufficient meat for our civilian population and the civilian population of the allies at home.

To have this meat, breeding animals must reproduce themselves so the offspring will be available for slaughter in the future.

Hogs can be increased quicker than any other kind of livestock.

Therefore a larger number of sows must be bred now, than in recent years.

In addition to the fact that there is an imperitive demand for more meat as a war measure, it should be taken into consideration that we now have an abundance of feed crops—corn, oats, and barley—with which to produce this necessary increase in the number of hogs. The demand for meat is certain and it will be profitable to the farmer to market some of this heavy grain supply on the hoof.

The increase in the number of hogs for various states, as recommended by the department, is as follows: Missouri, 50 per cent; Alabama, 30; Iowa, 25; Kansas, 25; Indiana, 20; Illinois, 20; Mississippi, 20; Arkansas, 20; South Carolina, 15; Ohio, 15; Kentucky, 15; Tennessee, 15; Maryland, 10; North Carolina, 10; Michigan, 10; Nebraska, 10; West Virginia, 5; and Georgia, 5. The increase needed for the entire country is 15 per cent and is covered by the above schedule. Other states than those named should breed no fewer sows than last year.

The result of these increases will be to provide sufficient animals to make the meat that is absolutely necessary to the feeding of our armies.

Pork can be transported more readily and economically to troops in the field than can any other meat. Great supplies of bacon must go to the boys in khaki at the front. Unless now a larger number of sows are bred, the amount of meat we will require next year will not be available.

The estimated number of hogs is 4,000,000 less than it was a year ago in this country; and in the face of this we need more hogs than ever before. How can we get them? By breeding sows at once.

The exportation of pork products has increased since the war began and will continue to increase during the length of the war. The foreign countries are devoting their farming energies to food and feed rather than livestock production, but they must have meat and they must get a large part of this supply from us.

During the last three months the price of hogs in the United States has been, on an average, more than twice as much as the average price for the five years from 1911 to 1915. In view of the large crop of feedstuffs in sight, however, it is believed that farmers will see the wisdom of taking every reasonable step to increase the supply of hogs and hog products.

It pays to advertise.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET

November 2.

The movement of livestock through the Portland yards has been about normal today for the time of the week and has been fairly steady with yesterday's prices in most departments excepting, however, a considerable show of weakness in the cattle pens. The total receipts for the day were about 500 cattle, 450 hogs and 100 sheep.

Cattle—It has been a very sluggish current that has swept the string of cattle through the market at the Portland Union Stockyards throughout the day. There has been no great tendency on the part of killers to hammer down the prices but the immense flow of cattle has simply filled all the Western packers to the limit and the consequence is a slow market and a return of considerable stuff to the country feed lots. We quote the following prices which show a decrease of 25c to $1.00 in the different classes of the cattle market: Best beef steers, $9@9.50; good beef steers, $7@9; best beef cows, $6@7; ordinary to good cows, $4@5; best heifers, $6.50@7.50; bulls, $4.50@6.75; calves, $7@9.50; stocker and feeder steers, $4@7.25.

Hogs—The hog market is steady and conditions are about normal for the day. Trading has not been too brisk, but offerings have crossed the scales more or less freely according to quality, at the following range of quotations: Prime light, $15.75@15.85; prime heavy, $15.65@15.75; pigs, $13.50@14; bulk, $15.75.

Sheep—Considerable trading was evident in the breeding ewe class in the sheep department this morning with only a nominal offering of mutton stuff. The following quotations prevail: Western lambs, $14@14.50; valley lambs, $13.50@14; yearlings, $12.50@13; wethers, $12@13; ewes, $8.50@10.50; breeding ewes, $12@18.

Veterans Eager to Go to Front.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—After receiving their baptism of fire in the fights and campaigns incident to the establishment of good government in Haiti and Santo Domingo, United States Marine veterans, now serving in those countries, are straining at the leash in eagerness to take up arms with their brothers overseas. Headquarters here has received many letters from Marines in Haiti requesting their transfer to the battle front in France.

Peace is now thoroughly established in the West Indian republics, and the sea-soldiers are tiring of the comparative quiet of the various posts where they are serving.

An Old Man's Stomach.

As we grow older and less active, less and less food is required to meet the demands of our bodies. If too much is habitually taken, the stomach will rebel. When a man reaches the advanced age of 85 or 90, you will find that he is a light eater. Be as careful as you will, however, you will occasionally eat more than you should and will feel the need of Chamberlain's Tablets to correct the disorder. These tablets do not contain pepsin, but strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. They also cause a gentle movement of the bowels. Adv.
