

Camp Lewis Notes

(United Press.) CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., Nov. 6.—Plans were practically complete today for the wild west show which men from Montana, eastern Oregon, Utah, Idaho and Wyoming will stage Sunday afternoon, November 11.

An event styled the drunken ride on the program will be one of the features of the affair. Among the contestants will be Enoch Kinnard, late of Buffalo Bill's wild west show; Wilford Killham, who claims to be amateur riding champion of the world; John Futzchue and James Thompson, circus exhibition roper, and J. W. McNeil, of Billings and Miles City, Mont.

Ernest Wieman, of Fullerton, Cal.,

was the first man sent to the camp to be granted exemption later on industrial grounds. He will drill oil wells near his home city.

Little Ones and Old Ones.

James Edwards, 208 Harriette St., Montgomery, Ala., writes: "I sleep all night and cough but little. I feel like a new man now from using Foley's Honey and Tar. My whole family is using it now—the little ones and the old ones. It has cured our coughs and broken our colds." Foley's Honey and Tar clears stopped air passages, removes phlegm, heals raw inflamed membranes, soothes sore chest, makes difficult breathing easy, and relieves those deep-seated, racking coughs!
