PORTLAND LIVE STOCK MARKET

November 5.
General conditions in the Portland Union Stockyards are steady with some indications of advances, but no weak spots. The receipts are a little bit below normal for the week's opening, carrying 1900 cattle, 1500 hogs and 1600 sheep.

CATTLE—A larger percentage of the string of cattle entering the yards for this week's opening are good, some choice steers for their class being grass-fed were found in the market this week and changed hands at $9.60. Some signs of strength were shown in the cattle department over the close of last week, and more particularly in the high-grade classes of stock. Some fairly good cows were sold on the market Monday morning at $7.10 @7.25. Disregarding the fact that cattle sold some stronger than at the close of the week, we are carrying a steady quotation which we believe to be low on the basis of the sales: Best steers, $9@9.50; good steers, $7@9; good cows, $6@7; ordinary, $4@5; heifers $6.50@7.50; calves, $7@9.50; bulls, $4.50@6.75; stags and feeders, $4@7.25.

HOGS—A fair strength was shown in the hog market this morning where the general belief was expressed that the low water mark had been passed and that the preservation of the industry requires a profit making basis for the hog producer. The general range of prices on the Portland market for the current season has been such as to guarantee a fair profit and encouragement to the hog raisers. Today's quotation is: Prime light, $16@16.25; prime heavy, $15.85@16; bulk, $16@16.25; pigs $14@14.50.

SHEEP—Conditions continue steady in the sheep department with fair shipments and ready transactions. Most of the lambs offered crossed the scales at the top of the quotations in their class, and all of the wethers changed hands at the top of the quotations, which we believe indicates a healthy tone to the sheep market in general. The shipment of breeding ewes continues strong with a correspondingly strong demand. The following quotations obtain: Yearlings, $12.50@13; wethers, $12@13;

ewes, $8.50@10.50; western lambs, $14@14.50; valley lambs, $13.50@14.
