T. R.'S GRIN SHOWS HOW IT FEELS TO LOSE 14 POUNDS

THEODORE ROOSEVELT

"De-lighted!" How else describe Theodore Roosevelt's joyful relief at the disappearance of his—his—well, his aldermanic front? His pose shows how it feels to lose 14 pounds—which is just what he did, at the rate of a pound a day, by vigorous training at Jack Cooper's roadhouse near Stamford, Conn.

of mention, is his water tank trick in which he makes his escape in full view of the audience. His "Russian Torture Board" is another new and novel idea of his own and has created a sensation wherever he has performed this marvelous trick. This is an Orpheum act.

In addition to these acts, the Arcade orchestra will have another big overture on tap and a new Keystone Comedy will be shown.

A BIT OF ADVICE

First—Don't Delay. Second—Don't Experiment.

If you suffer from backache; headaches or dizzy spells; if you rest poorly and are languid in the morning; if the kidney secretions are irregular and unnatural, do not delay. In such cases the kidneys often need help.

Doan's Kidney Pills are especially prepared for kidney trouble. They are recommended by thousands. Can La Grande residents desire more convincing proof of their effectiveness than the statement of a La Grande citizen who has used them and will-

TODAY AND TOMORROW AT THE STAR THEATRE

Today at the Star will see another cracking good show.

Everyone enjoys a good laugh and they will certainly have one coming after they see Lonesome Luke in his Western characterizations. He is here this time in one called "The Wrong Man."

There is a lot of shooting, horseback rides and in the midst of it all Casey falls off the top of a stage coach.

It all goes to round out an interesting story which naturally ends happily.

Helen Holmes, the Darling of the Rails, as she has been named by various of her admirers will be seen in the fifth chapter of the Rail Road Raiders, "A Woman's Wit." She experiences more thrills and narrow escapes but closes in a little closer on the Raiders.

Harry Carey is seen in a bully good western film-drama, "The Wrong Man." Coming Thursday and Friday, William Desmond in a Triangle special, "Master of Home." No raise in prices.

TWO NEW KING CHAMPIONS APPEAR

Desmond-McKim Fight is Feature in "Master of His Home."

Much has been said of motion picture fights, faked and otherwise, but there are not enough superlatives in the dictionary to describe the scrap put up by William Desmond and Robert McKim in "Master of His Home," the new Triangle play featuring the first named star, which will be at the Star Theatre Thursday and Friday.

Director Walter Edwards was determined to make this fight different, and the result was a clean-cut, fast and furious fistic encounter in which the first blow sent McKim spinning across the room, and not a semi-wrestling match where the participants roll about the floor through several hundred feet of film. After Desmond landed the first punch, he picked McKim up and hurled him against a nearby desk with a force that will bring a gasp from any audience. This was not all accomplished so easily as it appears in the film, however, as McKim although of slightly smaller build than Desmond, is very muscular and quick as a cat.

Of course, for the purpose of the story, it was necessary that Desmond land the telling punch, but after the two Triangle players got into the spirit of the thing it looked as though the scrap would be declared a draw.

The Desmond-McKim scrap is of brief duration but is fast and furious while it lasts, and Triangle patrons are promised an exhibition that will keep them on the edge of their seats with excitement.

Alma Rueben appears in support of William Desmond in his latest Triangle play, and the cast includes J. J. Dowling and Eleanor Hancock. The story is by R. Cecil Smith and directed by Walter Edwards.

At the Star Thursday and Friday.

ARCADE

AD SANTEL WILL APPEAR AT ARCADE THEATRE TONIGHT

Ad Santel, world's champion heavy weight wrestler, who will meet Jack O'Neill in a championship wrestling match Friday night, will appear on the stage at the Arcade Theatre tonight to put the chains on Rago the great, "escape marvel, who is on the Hippodrome bill tonight. This will give people a chance to see Mr. Santel in his citizen's clothes.

$2,000 DOG AT ARCADE THEATRE

A dog insured for $2,000 is one of the features with the Hipp Show at the Arcade Theatre. Although the canine in question does not answer a thousand questions, it figures prominently in the Traveling Man's Dilemma, a sketch featuring the talented Schultzes. The little feline contains countless smiles. The dog in question carries more insurance than any other canine that has visited La Grande. It is one of the few dogs in the country that is insured.

HIPPODROME SHOW IS ON TONIGHT

The regular Hippodrome Vaudeville Road Show will be on at Arcade Theatre tonight only.

This show opens with Jack Bean, the jumping marvel. This young man has some mighty clever tricks up his sleeve when it comes to jumping. The feature of this act is a high double somersault billed-folded, from a pedestal into a barrel.

George Stanley and Virginia a clever pair, offer a comedy singing and talking act replete with comedy songs and local hits.

"The Traveling Man's Dilemma" in which the talented Schultzes are appearing with great success, is a comedy sketch designed for laughing purposes only. A small dog also figures in the action of the piece and adds to the merriment engendered.

The big feature act of this week's bill is Rago and Co. Rago defies the laws of nature and extricates himself from every conceivable device. One of his many tricks that is worthy
