Funeral of John Green—The funeral of John Green who died October 30 in this city was held this afternoon from the Bohnenkamp Chapel. Interment was in Masonic cemetery.

Return From Vale—Mr. and Mrs. George Curry returned yesterday from Vale where they visited their son George for a few days. On their way home their car was completely turned over but no one was injured.

Community Page a Hit—The Observer's community page was an interesting page in Monday's paper. The page will be devoted to the interests of La Grande and the surrounding territory. It will be embellished with cartoons, editorials and news matter.

A Beautiful Window—Stegrist and Company, Jewelers, have a beautifully decorated window in honor of the vice president. In the window are portraits of President Wilson and Vice President Marshall draped with American flags, and the rest of the window is filled with Liberty Loan Bonds of many denominations.

He Keeps Busy—George Lewis of Elgin is certainly the Poo Bah of that city as he is owner of the theatre, the harness maker, owns the shoe store and is also a successful rancher. He is noted also as a most successful horse trader and the most expert peddler of anything from a load of fruit to a four horse wagon load of brooms.

Visiting in La Grande—Mrs. George Stevenson of Enterprise, wife of the Superintendent of the East Oregon Lumber company, accompanied by her little sister, Gladys Graham, are visiting La Grande and will probably remain for a month. Mrs. French Breaks Window—The large front plate glass window of French & Scranton, gents' furnishing store was broken Monday afternoon when Mrs. French attempted to back her large seven-passenger car away from the curbing and instead of putting the car in reverse put it in low. A broken window and window fixtures and a car fender slightly scratched and bent was the only damage done.

Mr. Eberhard Chairman—The chairman of the next Tuesday business men's luncheon will be Mr. Colon R. Eberhard. He was appointed by Dr. W. D. McMillan in accordance with the custom at the luncheons. This fall the luncheons will be Hooverized. The luncheons are a good thing; they bring the men of the community together, get them acquainted and get them to working together for the interests of La Grande. They meet their competitors in business, see that they do not wear horns, and better feeling is created in the community. The luncheons are democratic, there are no membership fees, no invitations are extended; they are open to every business and professional man in the community.

SOCIETY

OREGON CITY, Or., Nov. 5.—(Special.)—One of the prettiest luncheons of the season was given in this city on Thursday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock by Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford and her sister, Mrs. Harold Swafford, at their home at Twelfth and Washington street. The affair was given in honor of Mrs. Charles Leonard, Seattle, Wash., formerly Miss Ruth Brightbill, of this city, who is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Brightbill. The many friends of Miss Ford were taken by surprise. As they entered the reception hall they were met by little Margaret Swafford attired in a red, white and blue frock, who presented them with a tiny silk flag to which was attached cards announcing the engagement of Miss Sadye Evelyn Ford to Garland E. Hollowell, of Gladstone. He is stationed at Camp Lewis, American Lake, with Battery D, Field Artillery. The date of the wedding has not been set. Miss Ford is one of the well-known pianists of this city. She was born in the South, and comes from a prominent Southern family. She has resided in Oregon most of her life. At Eugene Miss Ford was assistant piano instructor of the University of Oregon. Since taking up her residence in this city she has been organist of the Methodist Church, of which her father, Rev. T. B. Ford, was pastor for some time.

It was while organist in the church in this city that Miss Ford and Mrs. Hollowell's romance commenced. He was tenor soloist of their choir until enlisting at Camp Lewis. Miss Ford has appeared on many occasions in this city in concert, and has a host of friends here, as has also Mr. Hollowell.

Mr. Hollowell is the son of J. M. Hollowell, of Gladstone. He attended the O. A. C. and while a student of that institution was a soloist of the Glee Club, and was also a member of the Apollo Club of Portland during his residence there. He also spent some time in Hood River before taking up his home in the former city. He is a native of Indiana.

Miss Ford is a cousin of Ed H. Ford and Mrs. Clarke Leiter, and a niece of Mrs. S. L. Ford, of this city.

waste, even the skins and cores of fallen and so called waste culls are saved and put into jelly jam and apple butter, but I have noticed tons of apples going to waste in this part of Oregon, why don't your people save them? It certainly is true. In the Grande Ronde Valley alone are many tons of apples that are being left on the ground to rot, that would make vinegar, cider, apple butter and apple jelly. Why?
