

The Outdoor Girl

must have something to protect her complexion against the effects of cold weather.

The skin can be kept soft, velvety and healthy—and the complexion fresh and rosy through the use of

OUR WILL OW CREAM

This is a dainty preparation of flowery fragrance. Its use is a pleasure, as it is not greasy or sticky. It cures chaps over night. It improves the texture of the skin. Keep a jar of this delightful cream on your dressing table and be sure to apply it to your face, hands and neck before and after exposure to the cold Autumn winds.

Miss Lucien Haley of La Grande was the guest of Miss Lulu Smith of Baker Monday.

Over three hundred women took advantage of the opportunity of meeting Mrs. Thomas R. Marshall and attended the reception given in her honor at the home of Mrs. George Cochran. Mrs. R. W. Logan, Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn and Mrs. Marshall were in the receiving line. The house was charmingly decorated with yellow chrysanthemums. The reception was given by the ladies of the Neighborhood Club. 11-8-11.

Miss Ethel Wright left on Tuesday evening for a month's visit in Corvallis, Eugene, and Portland. While in Corvallis she will be present at the installation of her sorority chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Rev. J. J. Tichner and wife have moved into furnished rooms just north of the Observer office where they will be pleased to meet the people on business or socially.

A reception in honor of Mr. T. K. Bellamy, leader of the Baptist choir, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Maguire was a most delightful affair. Mr. Bellamy and wife were invited out to spend the evening. The choir and members of the church called and surprised them. The evening was devoted to social converse and music. The musical program consisted of several fine selections rendered by the choir and individuals. Miss Sue Wilson gave a fine reading which was much enjoyed by all present. Rev. Tichner in behalf of the choir, in a few well chosen words, voicing the sentiment of the choir and church presented Mr. Bellamy an engraved solid silver napkin ring, to which he feelingly responded. Light refreshments were served by the genial hostess and the guests departed at a late hour feeling that it had been an occasion long to be remembered by everyone present. The choir has greatly improved under the instruction and leadership of Mr. Bellamy as everyone who attended the sacred concert last Sunday evening can testify.

Why We Can Offer You----

Better merchandise for less money. First the size of our concern—175 stores—the immense quantity of goods purchased at one time.

Second—Our policy of buying and selling for cash only.

Third—Eliminating the bookkeeping expense of charge customers, expense of delivering goods, costs of holding so-called—special—sales—and losses from bad accounts. The foregoing all cut down our expense cost of doing business in a most remarkable manner. These savings we give to you, our customers.

WE GUARANTEE YOU A SAVING OF FROM 25 TO 33 PER CENT.
