America Marching Through London

They march from the East, they march from the West, America's brightest, her bravest and best,
They march from the North, they march from the South,
To the plains of Hell and the cannon's mouth;
Truth, light and Freedom their old battle cry,
In the fields of war where the wrong
shall die;
They come to face the powers that on-
slave,
From thrall of oppression the weak to

For Honor and Justice their Fathers stood,
They stand for man's world-wide brotherhood,
For the things that count, for the fall of Pride,
For the reign of the Love of the Crucified;
The bright-harnessed angels are glad to look down
On America marching through London Town.

They are marching up, they are marching on,
From far Alabama and Oregon,
From grand Massachusetts and stately Maine,
From field and from forest an endless train,
The vanguard and wave of a mighty
sea,
The sons of sires who fought themselves free;
The sound of their shouting might waken the dead,
The face of all tyranny pale with dread,
Like stars on their courses the bright array,
Like legions avenging on Judgment
day,
True Knights of the Order of Liberty,
They carry the pennons of victory,
Host of Western lands, hail to thee!
For bright-harnessed angels may well look down,
On America marching through London Town.

Kith with you, kin with you, brothers are we,
Heart-clasped and hand-clasped by land and by sea,
One and the same at our dear cradle-shrine,
One and but one on the long battle-
line,
Shoulder to shoulder, entwined are our flags,
Till the ensigns of serfdom lie tattered
in rags;
What of death-dealing raider or submarine,
The reddest carnage that earth has seen;
What if war for us both should seem to be
The sweat of a new Gethsemane, Beyond there is peace, on Olivet's crown,
He suffered once that man might be free,
Whose hand strikes this hour of destiny,
The bright harnessed angels, they shout looking down
As America marches through London Town.

JUST GOT OVER A COLD?

Look out for kidney troubles and backache. Colds overtax the kidneys and often leave them weak. For weak kidneys—well, read what a La Grande man says:

Ed. L. Bussey says: "I had been subject to kidney trouble at times, especially when a cold settled in the small of my back. Dull pains annoyed me and my kidneys got badly out of order. About three years ago I began using Doan's Kidney Pills and from that time on, I have had something on which I could rely.
Whenever bothered by my kidneys it has taken Doan's Kidney Pills only a short time to get me right." (Statement given November 20, 1912.)
On May 25, 1916 Mr. Bussey said:
"I am ready to back up every word of my former statement, regarding my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills, for I know they have no equal.
When my kidneys get out of fix, I

SAMSON TRACTORS

PIPER GRIP

SAMSON SIEVE-GRIPS IN A CLASS BY THEMSELVES.

Original ideas developed through experience and necessity are embodied in Samson Sieve-Grip Tractors. You will find features there not thought of by others.

Recently we have secured letters patent on the method of connecting the air breather of a gas engine crank case to our patented NODUST-MOISTO-RIZER. This will be another exclusive feature in Samson Sieve-Grip Tractors, or otherwise an infringement if used by others.

The close connection of our management, being direct in touch with the actual operation, wants and requirements proving to be necessary in the small size farm tractor, we attribute largely to the success of the Samson Sieve-Grip.

It is our aim to manufacture a one hundred per cent efficiency tractor, sold at a right price, and give service that secures satisfied customers.
