KANSAS JACK-RABBIT NOW WAR DELICACY

(United Press.) OAKLEY, Kan., Nov. 13.—The despised Kansas Jack rabbit is coming into his own. For years the long eared speeder of the plains has been considered a pest almost equal to the coyote, to be killed and let lie. A Kansan would never think of eating a Jack rabbit. But last winter food profiteers from the cities began casting for new fields and hit upon the Jack rabbit. They shipped out frozen rabbits by the train load and marketed them in New York at a good price. In western Kansas the Jack rabbit is a pest. He ruins young orchards, eats alfalfa and generally overruns the country. To combat the plague nearly every county holds "round-ups." On an appointed day hunters form in a huge hollow square and slowly converge driving the rabbits before them. When the "jacks" begin to try to break through the lines they are clubbed to death. It is not uncommon for thousands of rabbits to be killed in a single round-up.

Until last winter the carcasses had always been left where the rabbits were killed. Last season, however, the profiteers began buying rabbits and shipping them to eastern markets in refrigerator cars. Kansans who visited New York cafes were surprised to see the same old Jack rabbits they had turned up their noses at all their lives served as "hares" and bringing an astounding price.

This winter the shipping of rabbits will be more extensive than ever. Already buyers are arranging big hunts and preparing to start shipping.

It pays to advertise.

DON'T SUFFER WITH NEURALGIA

Use Soothing Musterole When those sharp pains go shooting through your head, when your skull seems as if it would split, just rub a little Musterole on your temples and neck. It draws out the inflammation, soothes away the pain, usually giving quick relief. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Better than a mustard plaster and does not blister. Many doctors and nurses frankly recommend Musterole for sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet—colic of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). It is always dependable. 30c and 60c jars; hospital size $2.50.
