It has forty acres in full wheat and more land can be put in spring wheat. Mr. Morrison is a live wire and his friends will regret his determination to sell.

Auto and Motorcycle in Smashup—Yesterday noon saw a bad smash-up on the County Poor Farm road when the Duncan McDonald-Hupmobile had a rear-end collision with L. A. Keagle on a motorcycle. Mr. Keagle was on a few days visit to his father, Chas. Keagle of the Sugar addition, having arrived from Enterprise on Saturday. At noon he was going out of town and as he started to turn into the county farm the McDonald machine, containing Mrs. McDonald and her daughter, who was driving, tried to pass on the inside of the motorcycle resulting in the smashing of the machines. Mr. Keagle states that he was picked up 36 feet from where the machines met. The motorcycle was a Harley-Davidson borrowed from Fred Young. The Hupmobile was turned end for end and the ground was badly cut up. Mr. Keagle claims. Keagle was brought home by Mrs. and Miss McDonald and is suffering from a strained back and has a decided limp. The accident was witnessed by Wm. Selon, manager of the poor farm, and his two sons.

Etta Belle Kitchen: reading by Mrs. Caldwell, a vocal duet by the Misses Retta and Zilpha Allen, a violin solo by Master Floyd Smith and a couple of funny ones by R. J. Kieren. Each number was roundly cheered and each participant responded with second numbers, which lengthened the program considerably, so that the punch bowl provided by the ladies afterwards was liberally patronized. Dictator George Young talked a few minutes on Moosehead and Mooseheart in particular, his remarks being to the point and well received. Various games were provided and those who desired to remain longer as guests of the lodge found plenty to pass away the time. The committee, Meedames R. J. Kitchen, Frank Colton and Fred Smith, surely have a vote of thanks from the lodge and their guests for the efficient manner in which they handled the occasion.
