UNION-WALLOWA NEWS

Mrs. Church Dorrance's grandmother.

The Civil Government class of the High School attended court in Enterprise on Tuesday afternoon of this week.

JOSEPH, Nov. 15. (Special).—Maurice Eben, one of Joseph's many soldier boys was home on a short furlough. He is a member of the hospital corps now stationed at American Lake and expects to be sent to France in the near future. He spoke to his former school mates at the High School at the Monday morning assembly period. In his talk he told of his work as a member of the hospital corps, told of the great work of the Y. M. C. A. in camp, of how the boys enjoyed the magazines which they received because some one had been thoughtful enough to put a one-cent stamp on their old magazines and papers, and many other things which were of interest to the students of the school.

James Coleman is now clerking in the Luna Merc. Company's store. Grover Swaggart who recently brought his three year old daughter to Joseph from Imnaha for treatment for stomach trouble has developed a case of blood poisoning in his hand.

COVE NEWS NOTES.

COVE, Nov. 15. (Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Erickson and family of Island City visited Mrs. Erickson's brother, Harlan Koger, last Sunday. The Busy Bee Sewing Circle met with Mrs. Ben Miller last week Thursday. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Harlan Koger.

Mt. Fannie Grange will hold an all day meeting at the Shanghal schoolhouse, Saturday, Nov. 17. Speakers have been chosen for the day and good music prepared.

Nathan Daron is still harvesting and will probably finish threshing this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Becker were over from Union Tuesday visiting with friends in Lower Cove.

Walter Johnson is visiting his brother, Charles, in Union.

The young people of the Methodist church organized an Epworth League Monday evening, electing Miss Mabel Lantz president, Miss Eva Roberts, second vice-president, Miss Lois Comstock, third vice-president, Louie Lantz, secretary and Haskel Bloom, treasurer. They will hold their first social next week Thursday, November 22.

The Cove basket ball team is practicing every day at Maceabee Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Cenley and family have moved to La Grande and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Towle have moved into his house. Mr. Towle will take care of the stock this winter.

The Rev. Pongen will locate in Cove as pastor of the Baptist church and has rented the house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson.

Mrs. Heady has moved into the Sucher house. Mr. and Mrs. Sucher having moved to La Grande.

Ray Baker has resigned his position as principal of the Hammond school and joined the aviation corps.

A birthday surprise was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baker last Thursday evening. Seventeen guests were present. A short program was given, refreshments were served and all had a good time. It is very convenient at this time to have two birthdays in the same family at the same time. They surely must be "Hooverizing."

Miss Edna Comstock returned to her home this week from Aurora, Ill., where she has been attending college and specializing in music.

Mrs. Grant Yoder, with her two children, of Hanna, Alberta province, Canada, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sills. She will remain here until after Thanksgiving.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Most headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "loggy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

and son of the local hardware dealer, has enlisted in the army and is now on his way to France.

Benj. Rush, a prominent young man of this community, has enlisted in the engineering corps and is now in camp at Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson, of Idaho, are visiting in Elgin. Mrs. Stevenson came here to be with her mother, Mrs. Charles Hallgart, who has been seriously ill the last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Huffman, left Thursday morning for Vincent where they will visit a few days.

Rev. Trueblood of Perry visited in Elgin last week. The boys of the Elgin High School have subscribed $135 to the Y. M. C. A.

OBITUARY.

Rhoda Ashmead was born March 4, 1847 in Ohio and departed this life November 6, 1917 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Brasel, La Grande, Oregon. Rev. J. J. Tickner conducted the funeral services. The body was laid to rest at Island City cemetery.

On November 22, 1864, at the home of her parents near Fremont, Iowa, she was united in marriage to Grandville E. Ashmead. To this union were born eleven children, eight of whom are still living: Wm. F., Jericho, Texas; Mrs. Etta M. Brasel, La Grande; Mrs. Maggie A. Jagger, Gothenburg, Neb.; Mrs. Nora Peekham, Ceres, Calif.; H. D., High Valley, Ore.; Chas. N. Corral, Idaho; Mrs. Leona Miller, Union, Oregon; E. G., California.

Besides the members of her immediate family she leaves four sisters and one brother: Mrs. Susan Enloe, La Grande, Ore.; Mrs. Eliza Loomis, Hedrick, Iowa; Mrs. Sarah Thompson, Belle Fourche, South Dakota; Mrs. Joanna Alderman, Moscow, Idaho; F. M. Ellis, Fremont, Iowa.

The beloved husband and father passed away January 5, 1919, near Haden, Idaho.

At the age of fifteen she united with the Baptist church at Fremont, Iowa, and remained a consistent member until her death. After a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived. She reared her own monument while she lived in the hearts of all who knew her. Her life was completed, if work all done and well done constitutes completion. Through all the trials and sorrows that she met in the way her faith in God never wavered but she has left us and soon the snow will fall upon another grave that hides from our sight all that is mortal of a true and noble mother. Call not back the dear departed, Anchored safe where storms are over. On the border-land we left her, Soon to meet and part no more; Far beyond this world of changes, Far beyond this world of care, We shall find our missing loved one, In our Father's mansion fair.

Violin, Cello, Mandolin, Cornet, Clarinet and other Band and Orchestra instruments will receive tuition at one-half the former rates, if application is made at any time from this date until Saturday, November 24th. Telephone Red 3261 or call at Studio 1508 Fourth street. 11-15-9t. J. DAVID HAINES.

High School Bldg.

MONDAY, NOV. 19

ADMISSION 50c

THE BERKELEY SEXTETTE.

CONSIDER the Berkeley Sextette the finest entertainment orchestra now before the public," says Louis O. Runner, the well known organizer and coach. "The programs represent the most advanced type of high grade, refined entertainment known to the American public. Classical music is made interesting to all, and popular music is given a new charm. Orchestra numbers, readings, songs, instrumental solos, and costume selections make up this thoroughly pleasing entertainment."

Six talented and vivacious young women, of fine platform presence and with distinct musical ability, attracted to each other by a mutual love of music and thoroughly coached and trained in a program of this variety, the Berkeley Sextette, soon to be heard on the lyceum course, will more than make good the enthusiastic recommendation quoted above. Hear them.
