HOOD RIVER, Nov. 16.—"Don't let your horse foam at the mouth. Sure cure for 'slobbers' for only $1."

That's the way the ad in the farm paper read. Hood River farmers who answered it received the following "cure," printed on a piece of paper, by return mail:

"Teach your horse to spit."

Lyceum Entertainment Monday—The Berkeley Sextette, the second number of the Y. M. C. A. High School Lyceum course, will give its entertainment at the High School building Monday night, November 19. This number is bound to please; the Hampton Court singers, recently appearing in this city said that the Berkeley Sextette was unquestionably one of the very best orchestras on the Lyceum platform today. It is fully expected that the High School auditorium will be crowded on Monday night.
