LADD CANYON NOTES

LADD CANYON, Nov. 15.—(Special.)—The old schoolhouse, which has stood so many, many years, held its last gathering today, a bunch of men having assembled for its purchase. Dick Peebler is now the sole owner, having offered the highest bid. As he has quite a nice herd of sheep, he contemplates moving it onto his farm, adding sheds to it, for a modern sheep shed.

The ladies of the Red Cross members out this way gave a dance last Saturday evening in the old school house, for the purpose of obtaining more money for Red Cross work. They collected twenty-six dollars. Jack Walker played the violin, and Marion Spencer the banjo; Miss Amy Miller, Mrs. Henry Peebler and Mrs. Reg. Heryford acted as floor managers. Delicious home-made cakes with very good coffee was served, and the only fault people could find was that the crowd was too large for the floor. However, every one had a pleasant evening and are anxiously awaiting another one which may take place soon.

Miss Louisa Counsell, who has been ill the past eleven weeks, has been home from the hospital at Hot Lake the past week. Although she is quite weak, she is able to ride in the car every fourth day to undergo the sunlight treatment, which is a wonderful electrical treatment.

Miss Laura Elmer is conducting the school very ably.

The Clarence McAlexander family have moved to Fresno, Cal., where they will reside in the future.

Mrs. Reginald Heryford has just received another letter from her husband, who is at Camp Lewis, training to be a baker, stating that he is improving rapidly from his recent illness. He has been very sick for several weeks with a pain in his back, but is now able to stand and walk about.

Mrs. Mary Counsell and son, Henry, and the teacher, Miss Laura Elmer, are recovering from wounds received when the Bainbridge Maxwell collided with the Counsell Ford last Saturday afternoon near La Grande. The Ford was thrown through a barbed wire fence, landing upside down, pinning Mrs. Counsell underneath; consequently she received worse wounds than the rest, as the car rested on one limb, bruising it badly, and the wire inflicted a bad scalp wound, one on her face and on her arm. Henry had a cut in his hand, requiring four stitches; Miss Elmer had her scalp and chest scratched, besides having her shoulder and one side of her face badly bruised, while their fourth party, Frank Counsell, Jr., escaped unharmed. They have all continued their duties under the care of Dr. Richardson. Mr. Bainbridge and party were unharmed, but one of the wheels on their car was smashed, while the other car was very badly damaged. No one can understand how some of them escaped death.

The Red Cross ladies met this afternoon at Mrs. Henry Peebler's home to make a lot of hospital garments. Although all sewed hard, they are to meet there again tomorrow to finish and wrap a few more Christmas packages. A nice luncheon was served. Business of the Get-together club was transacted. Mrs. Thomas Sherwood will be the next hostess to both organizations next Thursday, November 22, as the usual meeting-time would come on Thanksgiving.

Several people around here are helping grade the new highway, and more are planning on entering the work as soon as they have finished with fall work.

ARCADE

BESSIE LOVE STARS IN "WEE LADY BETTY."

Bessie Love, who was last seen in "The Sawdust Ring," will appear at the Arcade Theatre Sunday in "Wee Lady Betty," a Triangle play of modern island.

On the Island of Kilerony, the Wee Lady Betty rules the tenants of the O'Reilly castle with a stern hand and a big heart. Their fear of the Wee Lady is next to the fear of the ghost of "Slasher" O'Reilly that is said to walk in the haunted room of the castle. When Sir Daniel O'Reilly dies Roger O'Reilly announces that he will take possession of the estate. The tenants, however, will not see the Wee Lady dispossessed, and some amusing situations ensue, following the arrival of young Roger.

Frank Borzage appears in the leading male role opposite Miss Love. Others in the cast are, Charles K. French, Walter Perkins, L. Jefferies, Aggie Herring, Walter Whitman, Thornton Edwards, Alfred Hollingsworth and J. P. Lockney. The story is by J. G. Hawks, and was produced under the direction of Charles Miller.

CAREY AGAIN AS "CHEYENNE HARRY."

The winning combination of Harry Carey as star and Jack Ford as director is to be continued. Their first picture, a Butterfly called "Straight Shooting," was hailed by the critics as worthy to rank beside such western classics as "The Virginian" and "Whispering Smith." Every one who saw "Straight Shooting," and thousands did so, will be eager to witness "The Secret Man," the second Carey-Ford Butterfly production which comes to the Star theatre on Sunday and Monday. Carey plays again his favorite role of "Cheyenne Harry," the outlaw whose heart was in the right place all the time. In "The Secret Man" he sacrifices his dearly-won freedom for the sake of a child in scenes of intensity which will find a response in any audience.

La Grande people endorse their worth.

Mrs. F. J. Bartlett, 603 Adams St., La Grande, says: "I know from personal experience Doan's Kidney Pills are fine for backache. At times, I was in a great deal of misery with my back, more so after I had been on my feet a great deal. Knowing the value of Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box and used them. I was permanently cured of that misery in my CALIFORNIA MEETS OREGON. U. of C. Makes First Invasion of North Today; Defeated Last Year.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 17.—The University of California made its first invasion of the North today.

Twenty husky University of California warriors are here to play the University of Oregon football team here this afternoon. It was only a year ago that the Oregonians defeated the California team at Berkeley but things are mighty different this year.

Uncle Sam has seriously crippled the University of Oregon team, ten experienced players having left the school for service. Moreover, the invading eleven is much headier than the Oregon team.

Berdick and Andy Smith have well coached, snappy teams.
