A Word of Thanks.

November 10, 1917.

Editor Observer:—On behalf of the Woman's Liberty Loan committee I want to extend to you our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the splendid cooperation you gave us in obtaining nation-wide publicity during the Liberty Loan campaign just closed.

Yours very truly,
MRS. Wm. G. McADOO,
Chairman
Woman's Liberty Loan Com.

Springfield—Southern Pacific appropriates $38,000 to replace 75-pound rails on nineteen miles of main line between Junction City and Goshen with ninety-pound rails. The heavier rails are already laid between Junction City and Portland, and the company is going ahead with improvements as rapidly as men and conditions will permit.

RED CROSS.

Classes in Surgical Dressings will hold an all-day meeting in the Elk's Building Wednesday, beginning at 9 o'clock. Ladies are requested to bring their own caps, aprons, scissors, silver knife, cup and sandwiches. Coffee will be served.

Sidney Lyle will be at the Foley hotel Nov. 25 to tune pianos. 11-19-1f

There will be no meeting of the Dramatic department of the Neighborhood Club to-morrow.

Attention—Yeomen
There will be a meeting of the American Yeomen tonight at the Eagles' hall at 8 P. M. Everyone is invited.

To the Public.
The statement has been made that I accused the boys who found Gun Mullenburg, when he was lost, of "finding him and holding him for ransom." This is untrue. I never so accused them or had any such idea. I did say "if any parties did find Mr. Mullenburg and held him for ransom they wouldn't get the reward, which was entirely different."
