"THE FOREMAN OF BAR X RANCH," A WONDERFUL PRODUCTION.

Tonight will see the appearance of the Hippodrome Road Show. These shows have been pleasing large audiences at the Arcade and this week's bill will no doubt be as good, if not better than the previous shows. There will be some good acrobatic stunts, singing, comedy and juggling acts. These, together with the comedy reels and orchestra music will make a very pleasing show.

On Thursday the big Bluebird production, "The Foreman of Bar X Ranch," will be shown.

Betrayed to an avenging posse of ranchmen, by his supposed pal Christopher Foy, wounded but still game, found shelter in the home of a ranchman he had robbed of valuable horse-flesh on the hoof. The girl knew him, knew that if his pursuers found him they would try him in the Court of Judge Lynch—and still she could not find courage to discharge into his body the shot that would lay him dead at her feet; would avenge the wrongs this "rustler" had committed against the ranchmen of the whole countryside. Was it love that had been born out of pity for his helplessness? Or was it simply the inscrutable way of womanhood? Was Christopher Foy saved by his un-

SPARTA TIMBER BEING CRUISED

SPokane men have applied for purchase much timber there.

Baker, Nov. 20.—(Special)—It has been known for some time that Government men have been cruising the timber in the Sparta district and all kinds of rumors have been going on as to what it meant. It has been said that a lumber company made an offer for the timber and that a railroad from Baker to that section was included in the company's plans. The statement following from Supervisor Earens should be authorized.

"In reference to the timber being cruised in the Sparta county I am only able to state that a tentative application for considerable timber in this locality has been made by Spokane men. However, no definite steps have been taken to advertise the timber. The department feels that the application is sufficient to require a cruise of all the timber lands lying between Catherine Creek and Eagle Creek, and working up a stumpage appraisal with a view of advertising the timber within the very near future if the applicant can show that he means business.

"The work of cruising and stumpage appraisal is largely completed, and I believe that the stand of timber in the territory cruised will be in the neighborhood of 250,000,000 feet. It is also reported that parties are figuring on a logging railroad down Catherine Creek to Union to handle this timber.

FRIENDS MEET IN FRANCE.

School Chums Separated By Enrollment Find Each Other. EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 20.—The world is too small a place to separate Elza W. Inman and Ed. Conant, school chums at Elmira.

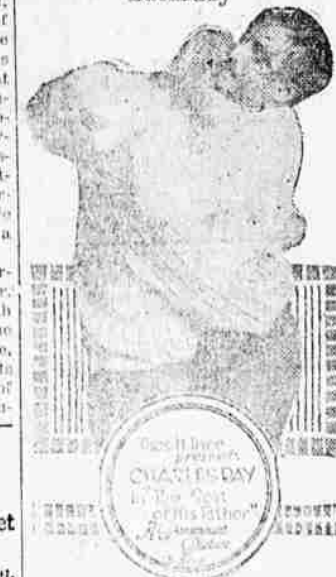

Inman and Conant enlisted in different branches of the service at different times. They were mysteriously sent to different mobilization points. They dropped from each other's sight completely.

Yet, they met on a pier in a certain French port a few minutes after one landed, according to letters received by relatives here.

tation which she has enjoyed is blown aside, and she is again the common woman. But to the man who has watched her regeneration, there appears the finer traits that without veneer of culture, are yet the attributes of the noble lady, and he suddenly realizes his folly in trying to make her a weapon of revenge against the man he hates.

The play is a highly-colored dramatic creation with Miss Dalton at her best. The cast includes among the principals, Jack Livingston, J. Barry Sherry and Dorena Mathews. The story is by Albert Cowley.

THE KAISER'S DREAM

William McLoorchin Scotch Highlanders, "Somewhere in France"

There's a story now current, though strange may it seem, Of the great Kaiser Bill and his wonderful dream. Being tired of the allies, he lay down in bed, And, among other things, he dreamt he was dead And in a fine coffin was lying in state, With a guard of brave Belgians, who lamented his fate. He wasn't long dead till he found to his cost That his soul, like his soldiers, had surely been lost. On leaving the earth to heaven he went straight, And, arriving up there, gave a knock at the gate. But St. Peter looked out and in a voice loud and clear Said: "Begone, Kaiser Bill; we don't want you here."

"Well," said the Kaiser, "that's very unwell; I suppose after that I must go to the devil!"

So he turned on his heel and off he did go

At the top of his speed to the regions below.

And when he got there he was filled with dismay,

When waiting outside he heard Old Nick say

To his limps: "Now, look here, boys, I give you a warning,

I'm expecting the Kaiser down here in the morning;

But don't let him in, for to me it's quite clear

He's a dangerous man and we don't want him here.

If once he gets in there'll be no end of quarrels;

In fact, I'm afraid he'll corrupt our good morals."

"Oh, Satan, my dear friend," the Kaiser then cried,

"Excuse me for listening while waiting outside.

If you don't admit me, where can I go?"

"Indeed," said the devil, "I really don't know."

"Oh, do let me in, I'm weary and cold,"

Said the Kaiser, quite anxious to enter.

Nick's fold. "Let me sit in a corner, no matter how hot."

"No!" said the devil, "most certainly not.

We don't admit people for riches or pelf;

Here are sulphur and matches; make a hell for yourself."

Then he kicked Wilhelm out and vanished in smoke,

And just at that moment the Kaiser awoke.

He jumped out of bed in a shivering sweat

And said: "Well, that dream I shall never forget.

That I won't go to heaven, I know very well.

But it's really too bad to be kicked out of hell."

PLAY GAMES OF CHILDHOOD.

Sammies Take to Crack the Whip and Other Pastimes.

CAMP LEWIS, TACOMA, Wash., Nov. 21.—The games of childhood—crack the whip, pun' pun' pullaway, and the rest—are being played by the soldiers in training here.

Army experts say the men who have developed the quickness of head and feet that make for success in such games will make good soldiers. Therefore, hours of play are part of a soldier's training.

And the men like it. The games harden the men.

Officers are encouraging the men to interest themselves in various kinds of athletics.
