Notice: To All Grocers And Retailers Of Sugar

United States Food Administration Federal Food Administrator for Oregon—W. B. Ayer, 491 Northwestern Bank Building.

Portland, Oregon, Nov. 23, 1917.
To All Grocers and Retailers of Sugar Effective November 22, 1917.

Dear Sir:—
The following regulations are in effect throughout the State of Oregon:

Sales to family consumers are limited to $1.00 purchases.

Farmers living at a distance from purchasing points will be permitted to purchase in 25 pound lots.

Hotels and restaurants and boarding houses are limited to a ten day supply.

Sugar shall not be used as a leader for special sales or to encourage the sale of other merchandise.

In exceptional cases, where parties live at long distance from purchasing points, arrangements may be made through this office for sales in sack lots, when it is known that sales in lesser quantities will work hardships on purchasers on account of the distance from the source of supply.

With reference to time between purchases, this office will not limit the purchases to any specific time, but each retailer is familiar with his customers' methods of purchasing and wherever he knows that a customer is buying in excess of his normal requirements, he is required to report same to this office, as under the new Food Administration Act, hoarding of any food commodities is not permissible, and every retailer must use due precaution in making sugar sales.

Very truly yours,
W. E. NEWELL,
Assistant Federal Food Administrator for Oregon.

We are having the above printed in order that all grocers will have this matter called to their attention as it is possible that some will fail to receive this notice from the Assistant Federal Food Administrator.

Black and Jeanette Stoddard went to Elgin Sunday to spend the day.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the Y. M.
C. A. will be held Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

NEXT LUNCHEON AT THE
FOLEY HOTEL, DEC. 4.

Due to shortness of dining room help and emergency demands in the kitchens, local hotels can not accommodate the regular mens' weekly luncheon this week, and a second postponement has been found to be necessary. Commencing next Tuesday, Dec. 4th, at the Foley hotel and alternating each week at the Bommer, these luncheons will occur as a regular feature. Attorney Colon E. Eberhard, who is the next chairman, today expressed his great disappointment that these affairs had run into the numerous causes requiring postponement. Tuesday being "meatless days" there will doubtless be a large number of those loving chickens for a diet out each week.

$25 Reward.

For information leading to the arrest of parties who shot up my cow camp and stole a pair of ivory handles off of a six-shooter; this happened since a week ago Sunday.
Also $5 reward for the return of the ivory handles.
(Signed) FRANK GABHART.
