ARCADE

HIPODROME VAUDEVILLE AT ARCADE TOMORROW.

Tomorrow, Wednesday, the Hippodrome vaudeville road show No. 1 will be with us for one night's engagement at the Arcade. Reports from Pendleton and elsewhere pronounce this show as a sure winner. There will be the overture by the orchestra and organ and the Keystone comedy that is so popular besides the four acts.

The Aldeans, two representatives of far off Australia, present a comedy bar and boxing number which they call "The Professor and the pupil." The Aldeans are gymnasts at a superb order and do some exceptional work on the bars. They are both good comedians and perpetuate a number of funny falls and create plenty of funny situations.

The Jack and Jill of vaudeville are a duo who have put together an act full of comedy and catchy singing and as they both have good singing voices this act has always pleased.

Curtis and Rubell are a combination of talent singularly effective for vaudeville as they are termed the "Pinch Hitters" by the amusement loving public. Their act consists of bits from every branch of vaudeville game and is full of originality. Their comedy lines are funny and never fail to get over and they introduce some nifty and artistic dancing which makes a very pleasing act.

Casetta and Rydell have the big dancing act of the bill. Opening with a "Modern Gavotte" in which they demonstrate many new steps and the best of the old ones, a "Horse Trot" follows that is absolutely new and original. This number is exceptionally interesting inasmuch as the National Dancing association has selected it for active use during the coming winter dancing classes. Miss Rydell follows in a solo number which she calls "A Basket of Flowers." This is a real gem and gives her ample opportunities to demon-

U. OF O. FRATERNITIES AND SOCIETIES HOOPERIZE.

Houses Have Wheatless and Meatless Days—Some Have Two.

(United Press.) EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 27.—Sorority and fraternity houses at the University of Oregon have adopted the food-substitution idea in a way that would delight the heart of Hoover.

Every house here has at least one meatless day, and many two wheatless and two meatless days. Ryebread has taken the place of wheat bread to a great extent in everyday use. Cookies, cakes, raisin bread and other unnecessary delicacies have been eliminated and the amount of butter and other fats used has been greatly reduced.

strate her ability as a dancer. A Ballet Duo follows and the act closes with a whirlwind number that for rapidity and action is a masterpiece of terpsichorean ability.

The usual matinee at 2:00 will be given and the evening show begins at 7:15.

CLEVER DANCERS COMING.

La Grande people who are interested in fancy and popular dances will have the opportunity of seeing some very clever work in this line at the Arcade Wednesday.

Casetta and Rydell form the combination of dancers and introduce the new dance just accepted by the National Dancing Association called the "Horse Trot." Besides this dance they will introduce several dancing specialties. This act comes very highly recommended from cities where they have appeared.

The Hippodrome Road Show this week is made up of acts that have been heralded as the best on the circuit.

S-T-A-R

POWERFUL DRAMA.

The picture "Where Are My Children" which comes to the Star Theatre Saturday and Sunday while dealing with a very delicate subject, does so in a way that is clean and instructive.

Of this picture C. H. Parkhurst has the following to say:

"Where Are My Children?" is a very powerful and gripping picture drama. I am glad to have witnessed it and am prompt to commend it. It deals with a most difficult matter in a manner of utmost dignity. It suggests a line of inquiry which is prevalent as is claimed, the public should have the opportunity to witness the presentation.

No children under 16 years of age will be admitted to the theatre during the showing of this picture unless accompanied by their parents.

Franklyn Farnum and Brownie Vernon in Comedy Drama.

There will be no great problems solved or any intensified emotions drawn upon in the presentation of the newest Bluebird photoplay, "Bringing Home Father," at the Star theatre today and tomorrow. The play is purely comedy, bidding only for laughter while the entertaining plot follows along in pleasant sequence. Franklyn Farnum and "Brownie" Vernon, well and favorably recalled by film fans for their excellent work in earlier Bluebirds, will have agreeable roles to present their artistic inclinations to the very best advantage. "Bringing Home Father" gently lampoons two political subjects at present nationally discussed—equal suffrage and prohibition. The fun comes through the determination of a strong-willed woman to run for office, advancing the "home dry" discussion as her principal appeal for votes. There will be many amusing scenes and laughable episodes and in the "surprise finish" the female candidate is swamped and her political aspirations brought to an exhilarating conclusion.

In addition to this feature picture, chapter 8 of the Railroad Raiders will be shown.

McELROY AND HIS JAZZ BAND COMING.

Arrangements have been made whereby J. C. McElroy, of Portland, with his Jazz Band will play here at the Rex hall Thanksgiving night for a real jazz dance and entertainment. Mr. McElroy and his band have just returned from a three week trip to the Southern part of the state where he played all of the principal cities. Mr. McElroy is very highly recommended in his line of amusement, especially so from Salem, where he put on the dances at the Armory during the State Fair, and from Ashland, Oregon, where he conducted the most successful dance ever put over in the Northwest during the annual Round-Up and "Hyin Behn" last July.

HUG'S GROCERY

enables the housewife to save butter, lard, suet—and give her family the best of foods

"THE proof of the pudding is in the eating"—and the proof of Mazola is in the cooking.

Mazola is not only the perfect medium for deep frying, sautéing, shortening and salad dressings—it is the perfect vegetable oil—produced from golden American corn.

Food Administrator Hoover asks us to use vegetable oils.

Mazola has not been established in a day. It has taken months of trial on the part of housewives who at first were reluctant to give up butter, lard or compounds.

If you are not already numbered among the thousands of Mazola users, get a can of Mazola and try this recipe.

BREAKFAST MUFFINS

2 cups flour	1 teaspoon salt	1 cup milk
4 level teaspoons baking powder	1 tablespoon sugar	1 full tablespoon Mazola
1 egg

Sift dry ingredients together, being sure they are thoroughly mixed. Beat the egg, add it to the milk and turn it into the bowl containing the dry ingredients. Add the Mazola and cut all together very quickly. Do not beat. Turn into muffin pans greased with Mazola, and bake in a moderately hot oven about 25 minutes.

Mazola can be obtained from your grocer. Pint, quart, half-gallon and gallon tins—for greatest economy buy the large sizes. Also ask him for the free Mazola Book of Recipes—or write us direct.

Your money refunded if Mazola does not give entire satisfaction.
