SEVENTY YEARS OLD BUT ANXIOUS TO FIGHT HUNS.

(United Press.)
WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—A seventy-year-old volunteer today is hoping for active service.

Henry E. Elliott, of Long Beach, Cal., is the would-be recruit, and he has offered his services to Secretary Baker in any capacity.

Elliott knows what war means. He served through the civil war in a regiment of Indiana volunteers, and was wounded at Chickamauga and was held eight months in a Confederate prison.

"I am anxious to go to the front," Elliott wrote Secretary Baker. "I am in perfect health and my father is a very active man at ninety-six years of age. I can start on the first train and pass any examination here or there."

Elliott is an expert on bridge construction and thinks he may be of service in that capacity.

Marines Use Queer Terms

WASHINGTON, Nov. 29.—Among the idiomatic terms adopted by United States Marines everywhere, the expression "shove off" is used more frequently than any other. In the soldier lingo, if a Marine goes home on furlough, leaves his camp or garrison, or goes anywhere, he "shoves off."

A story comes from France of a Marine who had been acting as orderly for a lieutenant. The officer sent him on an errand and when he returned, the lieutenant was nowhere about. A polu who happened to be loitering in the vicinity was questioned by the Marine:

"Have you seen the lieutenant?"
"Oui, monsieur, oui," replied the polu, proud of his newly-acquired Marine Corps English, "he have—what you called—pushed over."

"True friends of freedom will see that the power of this country and the producing activity of the country is raised to the highest degree and nobody be allowed to stand in its way."—President Wilson.

A smashing subject done in a daring way. "Where Are My Children?" at the Star, Saturday and Sunday 11-30-17.

A Wise Choice

When in doubt what to give for Christmas why not act upon this suggestion:

A Bank Account is suitable as a Christmas present for man, woman, child and is always acceptable.

It is, moreover, a gift that constantly increases in value from year to year. Its expense to you can be made as little as $1.00—or as much more as you wish.

We will be glad to have you call.
