

Goodies That Are Good

During the cold months to come there will be many days when you will probably feel the need of wholesome and delicious confectionery. We believe there is no place in this vicinity where you'll find more superb sweets than here, and the assortment is certainly a varied one. Our shipments arrive twice a week, direct from the markets, and you'll always find them fresh and at their best here. Our specialty in bulk is a peanut cluster with maple filling, made especially for us, covered with a thick coat of pure milk chocolate. Nothing like it anywhere else in the city. Saturday and Sunday a full quarter of a pound, 10 cents. See display in center of our candy window. Don't fail to purchase at least one bag and judge for yourself.

"I should say he is. He's the kind of man my wife would insist on having at least 48 hours' notice to prepare for."

"Do you mean cattle or the ones my husband makes?"

Lack of Men Crippling Lumber Industry in Northwest

BELLINGHAM, Wash., Dec. 1.—Enter the woman logger.

Owing to the lack of available men, women are now working in several northwest Washington camps as second cooks, waitresses and dishwashers. Women are expected to be put to work at other logging camp jobs.

CAMP LEWIS HAS CARUSO

Giuseppe Bodonno Drafted Just as He Starts Career

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Dec. 1.—The Metropolitan opera stage must wait for the war to end before it can claim Giuseppe Bodonno, called "Caruso of the army."

After all arrangements had been made to take a final course in voice culture under New York masters, preliminary to going on the opera stage, Bodonno was drafted.

He has won the friendship of all the soldiers here by singing at concerts and entertainments. He appeared last night and today in the solos of the clown in "Pagliacci" in the depot brigade's new theatre.

ELGIN NEWS

ELGIN, Dec. 1. (Special).—Elgin to Have Community Christmas. A plan is being discussed in Elgin to have a community Christmas. This plan was followed several years ago and was very successful. All are anxious to see the plan adopted. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Shoemaker entertained the Card club last Thursday evening. All spent a very enjoyable evening.

Miss Opal Hall returned to Elgin last week from Wallowa where she has been employed for several weeks. H. H. Weatherspoon, manager of the Elgin Commission company, reports that his firm has shipped fourteen carloads of potatoes and one carload of potatoes to various points, and is getting six more carloads of potatoes and one more of apples ready for shipment.

Montie Witty left last week for Filer, Idaho, where he will engage in farming.

The young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stowe of the Flat was buried last Sunday in the Pine Grove cemetery. She died after several weeks' illness of pneumonia.

LETTERS FROM THE FRONT.

since coming on the ship and this is the 11th day out.

The third day out the waves were running good and several of us went up and stood by the rail and let the waves come up and drench us with salt water, but the ship's officers ran us back. The wind was so strong that I couldn't look straight into it. It was quite a little fun to see the boat lift up and come down on a wave and send it out from under the keel. The scenery isn't very varied on the ocean—in fact I believe I would rather travel over a western desert as the scenery is a whole lot better. I don't see anything in a sea voyage to make me want to take another one except to get back to the U. S. Perhaps it would be better with better quarters and more light and air, for we only get three hours out of every 24 on deck. One thing, the next time I go across I am going to take all the oranges and lemons that I can carry for they are regular life savers when you are sick. They gave us some for breakfast a couple of times. Here is one of our meals—and they told us we would starve to death on board.—coffee, bread, potatoes, corn, spaghetti and meat.

We had our first life-boat drill Monday. We wear all our clothes, including blouse, overcoats and life preservers. We go into a raft with a hollow center, with room for from 15 to 40. The gun crew had target practice once and the guns snare our compartment quite a little. We are in the danger zone now and sleep fully clothed and with our overcoats and life-preservers handy.

There is only about 8 hours difference between us and Oregon and it seems funny to think that as we go to bed you folks at home are just eating dinner and as we get up you are going home from a dance.

We take everything as a matter of course now and talk about New York and Brooklyn just as we did of Imbler and Union when at home. I don't feel a bit different or farther away from home than when at Clatskanie. I do miss my mail though, but maybe I will get quite a little of it when I get across. We expect to reach port Tuesday as far as we know now. I am feeling fine.

Wednesday morning and land in sight. So close that I can see the houses. We have our packs rolled and will probably land some time today. Don't know what it is, but it is cold and foggy so must be near England. Had no experiences at all with submarines.

Ready Now at Old Price.

Fresh lot (just received) of Foley's Honey and Tar are selling at before-the-war prices. This puts a well-known cough medicine, ready to use, in homes at less than it costs to buy and mix the ingredients yourself and saves the bother and fuss. Mrs. Mary Kirby, 2533 Princeton, Ave., Spokane, Wash., writes: "I was sick in bed with lagrippe. I coughed very badly. I took Foley's Honey and Tar. It stopped my cough and I got better. So now I am around the house again. Sold everywhere."—Adv.
