MAY HAVE SWEETLESS XMAS Supply of Candy Will Fall Short of Demands
 Candy manufacturers here today said the supply of sweets for the Christmas trade would probably fall far short of the demand.
 The government's curtailment of the use of sugar in candy making has forced many of the larger manufacturers to reduce their output while the smaller plants have closed down altogether.
 You can get along without our candy but you won't after you try it. La Grande Pharmacy. 12-5-21.
