AMERICA AND HER ALLIES

By DR. WASHINGTON GLADDEN.

(This new national hymn was written by Rev. Washington Gladden, pastor of the First Congregational Church of Columbus, O., and was sung for the first time at a patriotic service in his church. The hymn is sung to the tune "Materna," better known as "O Mother Dear Jerusalem.")

O Land of lands, my Fatherland, the beautiful, the free,
All lands and shores to freedom are ever dear to thee;
All sons of Freedom hail thy name, and wait thy word of might,
While round the world the lists are joined for liberty and light.

Hail sons of France, old comrades dear! Hail Britons brave and true!
Hail Belgian martyrs ringed with flame! Slaves fired with visions new!
Italian lovers mailed with light! Dark brothers from Japan!
From east to west all lands are kin who live for God and man.

Here endeth war! Our hands are sworn! Now dawn the better hour
When lust of blood shall cease to rule, when Peace shall come with power;
We front the fiend that rends our race and fills our homes with gloom;
We break his scepter, spurn his crown, and nail him in his tomb!

Now hands all round, our troth we plight to rid the world of lies,
To fill all hearts with truth and trust and willing sacrifice;
To free all lands from hate and spite and fear from strand to strand;
To make all nations neighbors and the world one Fatherland.

Good Things for the Family.

For a make-believe apple pie to serve in a hurry, the following will be a success: Cut a few well-flavored, tart apples, put into a deep granite pie plate, season with sugar, butter, cinnamon, nutmeg or in any way to suit the taste of the family. Over the top place slices of buttered bread, set into the oven and bake until the apple sauce has absorbed and softened the bread. Serve with cream and sugar. Such a pie will be found harmless for the children's dessert. It is also a good way to use left-over slices of bread. However, we are not supposed to have left-over slices of bread these days, as the old custom which was common in grandmother's day is being revived, that of cutting the loaf as the bread is needed on the table. A very economical way of avoiding left-overs.

Prune Ice Cream.

Cover a cupful of prunes with cold water, and let them stand over night. In the morning cook in the same water until soft, remove the stones and put the fruit through a strainer. Add a cupful of sugar, four tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, a pinch of salt and one and a fourth cupfuls of heavy cream, whipped. Freeze.

New England Thanksgiving Pudding. Roll crackers to measure a cupful and a fourth. Pour over them a quart of scalded milk and let stand until cool; then add one cupful of sugar, four eggs, lightly beaten, one-third of a cupful of melted butter, a teaspoonful of salt and one-half a grated nutmeg. Cook a cupful and a half of raisins in just enough fruit juice to cover, or boiling water may be used. Remove when soft and plump. Mix all together and turn into a deep buttered pan. Set the pan in another containing water and bake in a slow oven three hours. Stir after the first half hour to prevent the raisins from settling.

Old Soldier Gives Recommendation.

Gustav Wangelin, Commander of G. A. R. Post, Mackinawville, Ill., writes: "I highly recommend Foley Kidney Pills, which I prefer to all others I have used and consider them 'Johnny on the spot.' Foley Kidney Pills give quick relief from backache, rheumatic pains, stiff, swollen joints, languidness, pains in groin and muscles, all other symptoms of kidney trouble and sleep disturbing bladder ailments. They assist nature in restoring strength and vitality. Sold everywhere.—Adv.

thing. Turn on a serving dish and garnish with lemon slices or cubes of jelly, serve with hard sauce.

Beans Without Pork.

Now that pork of all kinds is so expensive try baking beans with olive oil or the still cheaper corn oil, called Mazola. To a pint of beans parboiled, add three tablespoonfuls of the oil, a teaspoonful each of salt and mustard, an onion dropped in whole and buried in the beans, and two tablespoonfuls of molasses. Add boiling water and bake as usual, at least half a day.

Baked Pears.

Put pears, unpeeled but cored, into a baking pan, and sugar, butter, lemon juice or vinegar and bake while baking. Bake in an earthen dish in a slow oven for several hours. The syrup to serve with the pears will be rich and brown by the long cooking.

Sulu Women Warriors.

In the Philippines American soldiers on several occasions came in contact with Sulu women warriors. In one of the last battles on the islands the Sulus fortified themselves in the bowl of an extinct volcano. It was rushed and captured by American soldiers, who discovered to their dismay, after the battle, that a number of their antagonists had been women. Their figures were as slim as those of the men; both sexes wore their hair long, with handkerchiefs over their heads, and the women wore trousers similar to those worn in Turkey. Thus they were practically indistinguishable from the men. The bravery of these women warriors appears all the more remarkable when it is recalled that according to the Mohammedan faith a man who is slain while fighting Christians is translated at once to heaven, but as the women are not supposed to have souls their sacrifice of life is without hope of reward in a hereafter.
