PENDLETON FOLK SEE MYSTERIOUS AIRSHIP

Believed to Be Boze Carrier From Montana; Frequent Trips Made.

PENDLETON, Dec. 14. (Special.)—There is no longer any doubt that an airship is making nightly trips across eastern Oregon. Too many people have seen and heard the passage of the aerial carrier to admit the possibility of illusion.

Many Pendleton people saw the traveling lights and heard the motor Saturday night. Echo and Hermiston people all last week sent up reports of having seen traveling lights a number of times. The Weston Leader of Friday contained an account of a number of Weston folk having seen it and the La Grande Observer carried a story of people there having seen the light and of in exchange for his massive fortune, finally finds happiness by going to work as a common laborer in his own mill.

Refusing to listen to the men's demand for better wages and safety equipment, Peter Pemberton, commonly called "Iron-hearted Pemberton," has just won a strike. Little Billy, son of one of the men at the mill, is told by his father that Pemberton is a human impersonation of the devil. Anxious to see if he has horns and everything, he goes to his home and youth and age meet. Billy does not dream that he is talking to Pemberton, as he takes his butler, who is so much more gorgeously dressed, for the rich man. Through an unconscious suggestion of Billy's Pemberton goes down to the mills to see what conditions are really like. He is known as "Peter Brown, inexperienced."

When Peter is absent one day, Billy, fearing that he will be fired, goes into the mill at night to work his mounds. The furnace explodes and Billy is badly burned. Declaring that Pemberton is responsible for the accident because he has not provided safety devices, the men decide that Pemberton must die. They draw lots and Rose, drawing for Jim, the man she loves, starts back as she realizes that she has the slip with the cross on it. "Peter Brown" takes it from her hand giving her the thank slip he has drawn. What happens? Vaudeville will also be on the program for Saturday and Sunday.

WM. HART AT ARCADE TODAY AND TOMORROW

One would think that every thrill, every act of reckless daredevilry, had been injected into William S. Hart's photodramas. However, this famous western character always figures in some new and startling adventures.

For instance, in "The Narrow Trail," the initial Ince-Artifact picture, which will be seen at the Arcade today and tomorrow, Hart portrays an outlaw who falls under the influence of a beautiful girl. He loves her with all the desperate passion of which his wild nature is capable, and determines to reform. In doing this, his source of income is naturally shut off, and he is in trying straits for ready cash.

Just at this crisis, a big Rodeo is to be held in a nearby city. A cash prize is offered for the principal event—a "jump in the saddle and away" race—and the outlaw determines to enter himself and his Pinto pony. In doing so he knows he is taking a tremendous risk as the peculiarly marked pony is known to the sheriff and his deputies; but, goaded by necessity, he takes a chance, and in the presence of a crowd leaps into the saddle. It is during this wild ride with its throngs of contesting cowboys that excitement rises to its highest pitch.

BILLIE BURKE COMING

Woe, winsome Billie Burke personifies independent Young America in Belgium at the outbreak of the present great war in her latest Paramount picture, "Arms and the Girl," which is to appear at the Arcade Theatre Monday and Tuesday. Her experiences in this thrilling photoplay are typical of that of thousands of American girls stranded at the outset of the war in Europe, many of whom missed the pleasant adventures that happened to Miss Burke.
