Aliens Not Badly Treated.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 18.—The interned Germans at the station at Hot Springs, N. C., are not prisoners of war. They comprise officers and crews of the German merchant vessels which were held in the United States at the time of the declaration of war.

These aliens receive no funds from the Government except compensation for labor actually performed. Those engaged in construction work get $20 a month, with an additional $5 to foremen. Interned officers have not been permitted to receive from any source more than $10 a month and crewmen not more than $5. Receipts in excess of these amounts are placed to the credit of the aliens in banks.

Three plain but substantial meals are prepared each day. There is no waste, the same measures of economy and conservation which are being urged upon every American housewife being practiced at Hot Springs.

Great Demand for Range.

PORTLAND, Dec. 19.—A continued increase in the demand for permits to graze livestock on the National Forests and the necessity of going ahead with the work of developing the forest ranges to the utmost are emphasized by Acting Forester A. F. Potter in the annual report of the forest service.

ARCADE

VAUDEVILLE TONIGHT, STRONG PICTURE TOMORROW

Tonight at the Arcade theatre will see the tenth Hippodrome vaudeville road show that has been here this season. Many of the managers along the line where this show has already played have said that this is one of the best ones out so far. It is made up of singing, dancing, talking, musical and acrobatic acts and will no doubt please here as it has done at other places.

"The Savage," to be presented by Ruth Clifford in Bluebird photoplays at the Arcade theatre on Thursday only, tells a rugged story of the Canadian Northwest with a half-breed Indian the principal figure. Julio Sandoval, by his action, proved that civilization and inter-breeding does not always drive from the savage breast the final call of the wild—but it also proves that even a half-breed, who has sunk to the level of the animal, may still "find himself," repent his action and sacrifice his life in a test of bravery.

On the same program with this wonderful Bluebird picture will be shown a new issue of the Oregon News Weekly. This little one-act feature has proven to be mighty interesting and this week's film contains more newsy stuff. Included in this reel are pictures of the famous football game held in Portland between the University of Oregon and the U. S. marine team.

How to Prevent Croup.

In a child that is subject to attacks of croup, the first indication of the disease is hoarseness. Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as soon as the child becomes hoarse and the attack may be warded off and all danger and anxiety avoided.—adv.

MODART CORSETS Front Laced

through the corsets themselves.

We cannot hope to convey in words the merit of a corset which finds its most fitting expression in figures.

We can only tell you that the new design of MODART Front Laced Corsets seem to have acquired an added grace and to impart to the figure still something more of beauty and of poise.

We consider MODART the best corset at any price.

S-T-A-R

OLIVE THOMAS, BEWITCHING BUTTERFLY IN PRISON

To steal money is bad enough, but to steal Broadway's idolized musical comedy star, at the height of the show season, and whisk her away to the land of sand and suctur, with a five thousand dollar reward out for her return and the arrest of the kidnappers, is a pretty big order even for an Arizona millionaire. That is just what John Keyes does in the new Triangle play, "Broadway, Arizona," at the Star Theatre Thursday and Friday.

He kidnapped her because he loved her, and he had the doctor's word that her health demanded a change of climate. For publicity purposes, a year ago, she had accepted his proposal of marriage, only to deny the engagement after her press agent had gotten a lot of free space out of the announcement. Keyes forgave that.

Love finds strange ways to reach its ends, and Keyes was no ordinary lover. With Olive Thomas, the bewitching little star who but recently played havoc with the hearts of real Broadway audiences, cast as "Fritzi Carlyle," the actress whom Keyes finally wins, the story of "Broadway, Arizona" is assured no ordinary presentation on the screen.

MOVES INTO NEW QUARTERS

GEORGE RUBY INCREASES AND EXPANDS HIS BUSINESS

Adds Excelsior and Henderson Motorcycles to His Line—Moves to 106 Fir Street

George Ruby, the bicycle and motorcycle expert, has found it necessary to move into new and greatly enlarged quarters at 106 Fir street next to the Overland Garage. The Ruby Cycle Shop is a fair example of the great growth of the motor vehicle business in this section.

Mr. Ruby started a little shop on Depot and Washington street in March, 1916, and in 18 months, by strict attention to business and expert repair work has today the largest bicycle and motorcycle shop in Eastern Oregon. His present quarters are three times the size of the old shop and in addition there is a large basement. The building is brick and practically fireproof.

In addition to the bicycles and Indian motorcycles that he has always carried, Mr. Ruby closed last night the contract for both the Henderson and Excelsior machines for Union and Wallowa counties, the deal being made through the Chicago representative of the factories, Gid. Haynes, who is now in La Grande on his annual tour of the coast.

The Ruby Cycle Shop has also installed a most complete tire vulcanizing plant, one of the finest equipments in Oregon. The whole repair department will remain under the charge of Dustin Farnum, an expert repairman, who has not only 14 years experience in this work but is a noted motorcycle rider and the
