

ONLY 5 MORE CHRISTMAS SHOPPING DAYS-- GET BUSY

DOINGS OF THE DUFFS

Xmas Shopping

is accomplished with greater safety, promptness and ease when a check-book is used in place of currency.

It avoids the possibility of error which so largely enters into cash transactions during the "rush" season.

It saves the annoyance of waiting for change.

It is the safe, accurate and convenient way of financing Christmas shopping.

STROLLER

While evil tongues are lying about the Red Cross some poor woman's reputation is getting a rest.

Let me see we now have: Boozless Sundays; Washless Mondays; Meatless Tuesdays; Wheatless Wednesdays; Lightless Thursdays; Fishless Fridays; Bathless Saturdays; Which makes a very "balanced" week.

They say—goodness gracious, now they've got me gossiping—that some of the girls back east are marrying more than one soldier boy to get their war allowances.

A newspaper headliner writes: "Too Many Husbands, a Delightful Delightful Farce." I should say it was a dangerous predicament.

No one has suggested payless days. Strolling in the mist is mighty pleasant.

While out strolling in the rain I saw a lady without an umbrella and the rain had washed off her "camouflage."

A young man, Schumann-Heink's son, has enlisted as a "fourth class" cook in the army. I wouldn't be a fourth class cook. If I were going to be a cook, I'd be a first class cook.

Society news for the Observer should be sent in Friday.

Wear a Red Cross button and a smile.
