News Of La Grande

Home from Hospital.—Miss Margaret Corbett returned home from the hospital after undergoing an operation there.

Wedded at the Manse.—A quiet family wedding was celebrated on Saturday evening at the Presbyterian manse when Ralph E. Byers and Miss Edith Lewis were married by Rev.
G. L. Clark. The full ring ceremony was used. The father of the bride gave her away, Elmer Horstman acting as best man. Miss May Groupe and Miss Fernale Perrin were the bridesmaids. The happy couple left for Portland Saturday night, where they will visit for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Byers will be at home at their residence 805 Pennsylvania avenue, La Grande, after January 1.

Join Parents for Christmas.—Mr. and Mrs. McClelland of Portland arrived in the city to spend Christmas with Mrs. McClelland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bragg.

Elks Dance Tomorrow Night.—An Elks' dance is to be given at the Elks' home on Christmas night to which all Elks and their lady friends are invited. Special music is to be rendered and a general good time insured.

William Bollons, Jr. Here.—Wm.
Bollons, Jr., is here visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Vollons, Sr.

Spend Christmas in Enterprise.— Mrs. Herbert Browning and son were accompanied by Mrs. Browning's brother, Roger Kay of Port Stevens, to Enterprise this morning. Mr. Kay's home is at Enterprise.

Go to San Francisco.—Mr. and Mrs.
E. Hollister left for San Francisco by way of Salt Lake. They will spend Christmas and New Years there.

Attending State Convention.—Mrs.
Ivanhoe, county superintendent of schools, leaves for Portland tomorrow morning to attend the state convention of the State Teachers association, and from there she will go to Salem to attend the state convention of county school superintendents.

Go to Seattle.—Pauline Lederle has gone to Seattle to spend the holidays. She will return January 2.

Fire on Barrett Ranch.

PENDLETON, Dec. 24.—(Special) —The barn, cook house, 12 head of horses, one cow, and all harness and farm equipment owned by C. A. Barrett on one of his Pine creek ranches were totally destroyed by fire on Monday morning at 3 o'clock, says a letter received here by Henry Taylor from Mr. Barrett. No insurance was carried. It is believed that the fire was of incendiary origin.

POLITICAL NOTES

May Serve Until 1919.
Records in the U. S. Senate are said to show that Senator McNary's credentials, which were accepted by the senate, were for the unexpired term of the late Senator Harry Lane, ending March 3, 1919, and that unless the senate should reverse its action, McNary is entitled to serve until that date under the present appointment.

Visit in Joseph—Colon R. Eberhard, Mrs. Eberhard and family have gone to Joseph to spend the holidays with Mrs. Eberhard's parents.
