

Ideal Figure Large Below the Waist

By giving the appearance of fuller bust and reduced thighs, GOSSARD CORSETS bring new satisfaction to the woman whose weight is largely below the waist line. These models, made of firm, beautiful materials, perfectly distribute the flesh, giving the appearance of a fuller bust and smaller hips.

Many women select $200 Corsets, and others gratify their tastes at $50.00. In a Gossard the woman can become the "ideal" of her type, which is impossible when waist line alone is the deciding factor. Don't fail to read our Gossard talks, every issue.

FLOYD RAMP, SOCIALIST

RADICAL IS ON TRIAL

ROSEBURG, Dec. 28.—Douglas county people are much interested in the trial of Floyd Ramp, radical socialist, which was scheduled for today in Federal District Judge Walverton's court at Portland. Ramp is charged with interfering with the draft measure in and near Roseburg, and was indicted by a federal grand jury.

An attack upon the constitutionality of the selective service law is expected to be his chief defense. It was upon this ground that an unsuccessful effort was made recently by Ramp to set aside the indictment.

MODERN MOTHER GOOSE
FILM AT STAR SATURDAY

For tomorrow's program at the Star theatre the management has secured a rare treat in the Modern Mother Goose film, which will be shown there for the one day only.

The players in this wonder picture comprise 105 children ranging in age from three years to fifteen years, the only adult taking part in the picture is Fred R. Clark who plays the part of the giant.

This picture has been endorsed by the Illinois Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations.

"Modern Mother Goose" is the story of the adventures of the children of the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe. The first of the five parts shows the experiences of Tommy, the boy without a birthday party. Tommy wins the regard of a fairy who takes him to a place in Fairyland from which he can see into Mother Goose's realm.

Tommy sees the house of the Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe. He sees the children go to bed in the top of the shoe. Another Fairy comes and wakes them and they steal out and meet Mother Goose in the moonlight. Then follows the wonderful flight of the huge goose through the clouds with the shoe children on her back.

The children ride on the Goose to a party in the Moon Garden of Mistress Mary Quite Contrary, but they have too good a time and stay too late. A terrible giant lives near. An old witch tells him about the children and he captures them at night. The children are imprisoned in the Giant's dungeon and the witch puts the pot on to boil.

Old King Cole, ruler of Gooseland, and Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines lead the Gooseland army to rescue the Shoe Children. The Giant rushes out but is overpowered and dragged to King Cole's palace.

After the release of the Shoe children all Mother Gooseland rejoices. The Fairies come out and dance, and Tommy, who has been a thrilled spectator of all these occurrences, reluctantly returns to earth.

Modern Mother Goose is for children, and for grown-ups who have not forgotten that they were children once.

In the words of the verse that precedes the first scene: "Backward, Turn Backward, O Time in Thy Flight, Make Me a Child Again Just for Tonight."

WHO IS YOUR NEIGHBOR?

A theme that will have a universal appeal is found in "Double-Crossed," a Paramount picture starring Pauline Frederick at the Arcade theatre, today and tomorrow. This is the fact that not one of us really knows all about the persons nearest to us in daily life. For instance, in "Double-Crossed" a devoted young wife learns for the first time of a youthful slip on the part of her husband who unbeknownst to her had unconsciously placed upon a pedestal too high for any man. What happened when she found out his crime and how a new and deeper understanding was brought about between them, is pictured by Miss Frederick with all the wondrous artistry of which she is capable.

MASSIVE SETS USED IN THE AIRCRAFT SPECTACLE "THE WOMAN GOD FORGOT"

When the massive sets were built for the production of "Intolerance" it was thought the last word in the construction of photodramatic sets had been reached, but Cecil B. de Mille, the famous producer, who is responsible for the Artcraft production "The Woman God Forgot," in which Geraldine Farrar will be seen at the Arcade on Monday and Tuesday has gone even that famous set one better.

The scenes of "The Woman God

Forgot," are laid during the Spanish conquest of the Aztecs and Mr. de Mille had erected an exact reproduction of the famous pyramid of Teocalli, surrounded by an entire Aztec city. This one set covers an area of two square miles and the pyramid is nearly 200 feet in height and of the most substantial construction owing to the fact that over a thousand men battle up the stairways and inclines to the temple at the top. The interior of the pyramid is also complete in the minutest detail, the huge sacrificial room being reproduced in the exact size of the room in which the High Priest of Aztec sacrificed his human victims to the Aztec gods.

In the photodrama the fighting Spaniards and Aztec warriors are seen grappling with each other, and rolling down the long sloping sides of the edifice, or being hurled from the top to the ground below.
