

Could Not Eat or Sleep Made Well By PERUNA

Mr. William E. Denny, 1023 Park Ave., Springfield, Ohio, writes: "I find great pleasure in writing you and thanking you for what Peruna has already done for me. I have been troubled with catarrh for years, and it had affected my head, nose, throat and stomach, that I could not eat nor sleep with any satisfaction. "I have just taken three bottles. I can eat most anything and am greatly relieved of nervousness, so that when I lie down I can sleep without the least trouble. I recommend it to all those who are sufferers of that dreadful disease, catarrh."

Miss Flora Koch, the popular high-school teacher, was a guest of honor at a number of delightful social affairs prior to her departure for Walla Walla, where she has taken up her new duties as head of the history department in the high school at that place. Miss Bessie White entertained for her at an informal afternoon party, at which knitting was the diversion. Mrs. Norman Fries was hostess at an evening party, and Miss Margaret Anson presided at an attractive tea. Miss Koch has been connected with the local high school for the past six years and during that time has found many close friends, who deeply regret to see her go. She has endeared herself not only to her students, on whose lives she has made a lasting and wholesome impression, but to the patrons of the school as well, all of whom have appreciated her remarkable skill as a teacher.

"THREE-EYED ROSIE" NEW BOSS OF BRITISH NAVY

VICE ADMIRAL SIR ROSSLYN WEMYSS.

"Three-Eyed Rosie" is the nickname by which English sailors affectionately refer to Vice Admiral Sir Rosslyn Wemyss, the new first sea lord. The name was, of course, suggested by the admiral's monocle.

DRAFTED MEN MAY HELP TO SPEED UP SPRUCE

PORTLAND, Jan. 5.—Provost Marshal Crowder's order permitting any draft-age man to enlist in the spruce production division of the United States Army Signal Corps is speeding up production of this wood for airplane parts, according to Colonel Disque, commander of this division. Disque states that many lumbermen engaged in working other woods have been enlisted in the last week, and inquiries are pouring in from men in all parts of the Northwest.

"We are especially in need of men who have been working in the forests," said Colonel Disque today, and their enlistment is especially welcomed. They will virtually be retaining their positions in logging camps if they enlist, and at the same time they will be aiding tremendously the American program by providing the material that must be procured quickly if America's airplane fleet is to be adequate to effectively act as "eyes" for the artillery. Artillerymen depend upon aviators to direct their shots nowadays, and aviation now depends upon the ability of the Northwest to produce the necessary spruce.

Forestry soldiers from Middle West lumber regions are joining the Northwest lumberjacks in the Oregon and Washington woods, swatting the knifer by getting out spruce. These will be augmented by several times their number in practically every camp as fast as facilities for their care can be arranged.

Farmers' Week at Corvallis CORVALLIS, Jan. 5.—Several important sessions were held yesterday in connection with Farmers' Week. Foremost of these was the special annual Northwest Grain Convention, which opened and will continue the remainder of the week. Bulk handling of grain, elevator organization and similar features in connection with the move to eliminate the expense of sacks will be discussed by M. H. Hauser, Portland; W. W. Harrah, Pendleton; A. R. Chase, The Dalles; Prof. G. R. Hylop, O. A. C., and Dr. Hector McPherson, Bureau of Markets. County school superintendents, rural school supervisors and county club leaders convened to discuss the value of follow-up work and plans for the coming year. Thomas Brunk of Salem was the principal speaker at yesterday's session of the Oregon Poland China Breeders' association. Ways of fitting older hogs for market in war time will be discussed by J. R. Cole, Molalla.

"Financing a Drainage District" was the theme of J. A. Kenting, president of the Lumbermen's Trust company, Portland, in addressing the State Drainage association.

Put On a War Basis. OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 5.—Every business house in Washington is being put on a war-time basis by a movement the State Council of Defense has well under way today. This is in keeping with the suggestions of the commercial economy board of the Council of National Defense, and a special committee on commercial economy is carrying on the campaign with Washington retailers.

The program, effective today in many sections, includes: One delivery a day, limitation of credit to 30 days, selling of necessities and staples instead of luxuries, nine hour stores opening at 8 A. M., closing at 6 P. M., including Saturdays.

LYCEUM NUMBER MONDAY

Venetians Will Appear at High School January 7.

The fourth number of the Y. M. C. A. High School lyceum course will be given at the high school building on Monday evening, January 7. This attraction is known as "The Venetians," a troupe of four artists. The Ellison-White Lyceum Bureau is proud of this attraction and are willing to recommend them to any city as a really great musical company. The bureau writes the local management that they are eager for the people of La Grande to pass judgment on this organization; they say that in a wide world search for musical artists for the lyceum and chautauqua platform there is occasionally found a nugget of pure gold. Once in a decade there is effected an organization presenting such a new, fresh, and wholly invigorating musical program as to awaken even the most blasé critic to enthusiasm.

"The Venetians" is a combination of talents that is exceptional. There's Vissochi, the foremost and best recognized exponent of that little-known instrument, the Italian grand concert accordion, whose music has charmed probably three million hearers in his extended tour covering every important city of America, Europe, South America and the Holy Land. Then Annabel Sturgis, violinist, who plays the wild gypsy dances and folk music of many lands with fire and dash, thrilling her hearers. And Katherine Kelley, humorist, presenting novel features of her own conception, climaxing artistry with the spell of dominating personality, undefinable, winning and attractive. And, rounding out the perfect ensemble, Ethel Easton, accompanist and soprano, who plays and sings with perfect understanding. This company is one of the greatest that has ever appeared in La Grande. Make an effort to hear this evening of music and song.

PORTLAND MARKET LETTER

January 4, 1917.

CATTLE—Receipts 375. The general tone of the market in the better classes of steers was fully steady, choice steers being in a fairly good demand. Off grades of steers and butcher stuff and old cows did not find a very good outlet today and were sharply lower and weaker.

HOGS—With the receipts at 1350 today, the market can be quoted steady with yesterday's market. While a car load got in on a higher plane than has been quoted numbers of medium hogs did not show any strength to the market in general.

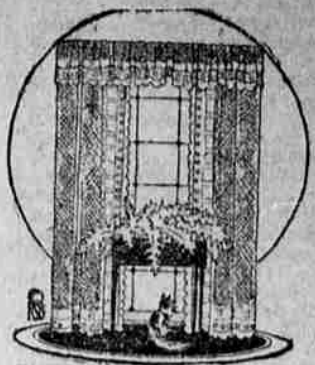

SHEEP—Receipts were nominal, there being but 199 head on the market. The sheep market seems to be in excellent shape and while nothing has been sold higher than quotations, yet the outlet is very good, especially on the better classes of yearlings and lambs.

Quotations in the various departments of the market for the day are as follows:

CATTLE—Med. to choice steers, 9.75-10.50; good to medium steers, 8.75-9.65; common to good steers, 7.25-8.40; choice cows and heifers, 7.00-7.65; common to good cows and heifers, 5.75-7.25; canners, 3.00-5.50; bulls, 4.50-7.00; calves, 7.00-10.00; stockers and feeders, 5.00-8.00. HOGS—Prime light, 15.35-15.60;

prime heavy, 15.50-15.65; pigs, 13.50-14.50; bulk, 15.00

SHEEP—Western lambs, 13.00-13.50; Valley lambs, 12.50-13.00; yearlings, 12.00-12.50; wethers, 11.75-12.25; ewes, 8.00-10.00.
