Soldier Boy has Premonition of Death

By J. W. PEGLER (United Press Staff Correspondent.) WITH THE AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY ARMY FRANCE, Dec. 15. (By Mail.)—If there isn't another warm place in town, there'll be a red-hot fire all winter in the little stove in the Marine dentist's office. He began figuring on a fuel supply 'way early in the fall. People thought him eccentric when he insisted that every Marine who came to him for relief from a tooth-ache must bring along a tree-limb or empty packing case. Every morning you'd see a line of them—kids with swollen jaws, plowing through the mud to the dentist's carrying a block of wood. That wood accumulated. Now he has enough to last until the middle of march and it's still coming with every patient.

Arrested in Mexico. PORTLAND, Jan. 9.—(Special.)—Under indictment here for the alleged defalcation of $10,000 from the Peninsula Lumber Company, where he was employed as a bookkeeper, Homer P. Ford was arrested Monday morning at Socorro, New Mexico. Miss Muriel Funk, a step-daughter of George B. Funk, City Auditor, who is alleged to have eloped with Ford when he fled from the state early last February, was with him at the time of his arrest and is being detained by the New Mexico officials.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE WORLD OF SPORTS

PATSY CLINE REMOVED FROM LIST OF LEONARD OPPONENTS

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—The idea that Irish Patsy Cline was ready for a long bout with Benny Leonard seems to have taken wings a few days ago and just flew away. Patsy bumped into a hurricane of fists when he met Johnny Tillman and the stuff was off. He'll have to get busy along some other lines if he hopes to regain favor.

Cline never had been considered more than just a good boy before Harry Pollock annexed him to a good contract. The association with Pollock was the thing that got him publicity and started him toward some good matches. The little lightweight also got the benefit of some high class coaching.

Pollock drew off the match with Leonard and, luckily, Cline landed a solid right hand smash on the champion's chin early in the bout. It made things look good for him and it seemed likely a long bout would be arranged for him, but, as noted, he took on Tillman.

Tillman is a tall rangy scrapper, fast with both hands. He demonstrated that any fast, careful boxer can beat Cline, simply because the latter isn't able to fight at long range. Leonard, the chances are, would have no difficulty in putting Cline down for the count in a longer bout. The Philadelphia affair was over the six-round route.

As a matter of fact, there are very few lightweights with the class that really entitles them to a chance at Leonard. Of the few Joe Welling is the outstanding one of the lot, and it is hardly probable he could fight, for he is in the naval reserve. Johnny Dundee is another of the few but it seems to be practically a cinch that he will not be given a crack Dundee in Philadelphia gained him a lot of publicity, started him on the road to fame, but really didn't amount to much. Jackson has hardly done anything since that time that would give him any credit.

Frankie Callahan has been pleading for just one more chance at the champion and the chances are he will get it. Callahan met Leonard just before the latter became champion and put up a rattling good fight. He was beaten but fighting strong at the end of the bout. Leonard would have trouble with Callahan.

ED. BARROWS MAY HANDLE RED SOX

By H. C. HAMILTON (United Press Staff Correspondent.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 9.—It is regarded in well informed baseball circles that Ed. Barrows, whose resignation as president of the International league will be acted upon at the schedule meeting of the league Feb. 12, will be connected with the Red Sox in some capacity next summer.

It is a fact that Barrow was offered the presidency of the Red Sox some months ago, and that he took up the matter with Ban Johnson. Johnson and Barrow are friends of long standing and the American league head was pleased with the opportunity to have Barrow in the league. He advised Barrow to accept.

Barrow took the offer under advisement and finally came to the conclusion that he could not accept, and that was where the matter has stood for some time. Harry Frazee, however, has been after Barrow ever since the latter split with the International league and it may be that the deal will be completed yet.

Frazee is a mighty busy man with interests other than baseball, and the latter business is something that with baseball, his clear insight into matters demanding action quickly and steadily, give him an inside track over other applicants for the position. Frazee is sorely in need of someone in whom he can place confidence sufficient to turn over the entire executive end of the baseball club.

Whether Barrow would be manager of the club is a subject not yet discussed publicly. Barrow has had long experience as a baseball club manager, and at one time led a club in the American league—Detroit. He has had varying success with minor league clubs. Once he was at the helm at Indianapolis, and just before he ascended to the title of president in the International league he was manager of one of its clubs.

Jack Barry, it is certain, can not devote a great deal of time to baseball next summer, although Frazee is said to be hopeful that things will so shape themselves as to give him Barry's services for a brief period every day in the early spring. He believes he could make it fine if Barry would help just that much and aid in the selection of a new manager.
