SATURDAY EVENING POST STORY FILMED

PARAMOUNT FEATURE AT STAR

Winsome Marguerite Clark is now appearing in one of the most talked-of stories of the year—"Bab's Burglar" which originally appeared in the Saturday Evening Post and which was written by Mary Roberts Rinehart.

The story was followed by thousands of readers all over the country who will recognize in Miss Clark a perfect "type" for "Bab."

Younger sister of an attractive girl of twenty-four, and even more romantic than the average boarding-school girl, Bab's efforts to marry off her older sister are seemingly funny and her experiences with her thousand dollar allowance which she spends in two weeks, still funnier.

Director J. Searle Dewey, who has directed many of the Clark's biggest productions, was also responsible for "Bab's Burglar," which will be shown at the Arcade theatre today and tomorrow.

"TOM SAWYER" COMING SOON

Jack Pickford to Appear at Arcade As Mark Twain's Boy Hero.

Mark Twain's boy hero, Tom Sawyer, has long held a unique place in literature, and many of his admirers will be glad to hear that clever young Jack Pickford, of Paramount pictures, has at last brought the real Tom to life on the screen. His impersonation is vivid and drawn with the sure masterful touches that he gave to "Freckles"; Booth Tarkington's "The Hero of Seventeen"; and "The Dummy." "Tom Sawyer" will be seen at the Arcade theatre on Monday and Tuesday.

Prefers Chamberlain's.

In the course of a conversation with Chamberlain Medicine Co.'s representative today, we had occasion to discuss in a general way the merits of their different preparations. At his suggestion I take pleasure in expressing my estimation of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I have a family of six children and have used this remedy in my home for years. I consider it the only cough remedy on the market, as I have tried nearly all kinds.—Earl C. Hoas, publisher Hamilton County Republican-News, Syracuse, Kansas.—Adv.

Newspaper Atmosphere With Real Life and Blood People Characterize "Hate."

Very seldom in the picturization of a newspaper story is the real atmosphere of a big daily faithfully carried out. While "Hate" which will be shown at the Star theatre on Saturday and Sunday of this week, is not a newspaper story, yet many of its characters can be found in the local room of any paper in this city. Take Jack Bradley, for instance; he is the type of newspaper reporter one can find only in that vast army of ceaseless and tireless workers who penetrate every nook and corner of a great city in search of its tragedy. Bradley is a human being. He is not the type of a reporter portrayed in cheap novels or melodrama. Bradley actually lives, for the character was found by the author of "Hate" in one of the big Eastern cities. "Hate" is a true story. It was taken from a real everyday tragedy, and Jack Bradley played a significant part in the real tragedy. And so it is with all characters. "Hate" is a story dealing with the mysterious workings of nature. It tells the story of a youth whose soul is possessed of hatred for everything except his mother. This terrible passion is the result of the longing of his mother during the period of motherhood. The boy kills his father after he learns that the parent had caused his mother years of anguish. In the end the mother is forced to sacrifice her position, jeopardize the prestige of the man who really loves her, and tells to the world the secret of her girlhood in an effort to save her son from the law's penalty. Each chapter of this powerful story is crowded with heart throbs and the suspense throughout is gripping. "Hate" is the feature selected by the management of the Star theatre for tomorrow and Sunday.

A joint public installation of the W. R. C. and G. A. R. will be held here Saturday, January 19, and it will be made one of the big events of the year in G. A. R. and W. R. C. circles because of the presence of so many department officers, Union county being fortunate in having so many distinguished members.

The first event of the day will be the 12 o'clock dinner given by the W. R. C. to the G. A. R. and this is always an enjoyable social event.

The installing officer will be Mrs. Minnie Baird of Union, department president and at present department secretary. Past Department President Clara T. Lyle, of Pendleton, chairman of the executive committee, will come from Pendleton to officiate as the musician. WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES.

Jan. 18.—Germans with lectures, pamphlets and movies are attempting to restore the German army to the belief that they are invincible, ceaselessly ridiculing America and saying the army is "contentible," and that the stories of the big army are a bluff and the Americans "wind-bags." The captured prisoners believe the war will be finished before the Americans enter. They are confident the proposed western drive will end the Allies.

WORKMEN SAY THEY WERE FORCED TO JOIN I. W. W.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 18.—Arthur Luddington and Leslie Culligwater were arrested. They are Industrial Workers of the World and say the organization plans to tie up all northwest lumber camps in the Spring. They said they were forced to join in order to hold their jobs in the Oregon woods and left Oregon because they did not want to participate in a big strike. Federal agents are investigating.

Picked War Horses.

CAMP LEWIS, American Lake, Wash., Jan. 18.—The most perfect bunches of war horses in the United States army is claimed for Camp Lewis by Capt. J. W. Jackson, noted horseman who is commander of the remount station. His men are picked riders and horse trainers, and they have worked patiently for weeks to match evenly the mounts for the different organizations as well as exercising special care in selecting only the finest of the horses offered.

As a result, the headquarters troop is mounted on sorrels—115 of them—each a splendid animal. A solid black mount has been furnished each member of the military police while the 325th Field Artillery boasts of 125 bays, all of the same shade and uniformly powerful in build. The brigade headquarters troopers each have a coal black steed. The ammunition train horses are of the same dusky shade.

New Lymphatic System

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 17.—When your lymphatic breaks down just go to a physician and have him make you a new one out of silk thread. It will turn you into a human wick and the threads will not be noticed by the wearer.

Such an operation recently was performed on a man of 52 years at a Spokane hospital. The patient was threatened with elephantiasis of the leg through the closing of the lymphatic channels. The surgeons, using a needle a foot long, punctured the skin at a point below the knee and carried four-foot lengths of silk threads under the cuticle up to the middle of the abdomen. It was necessary to thread the needle every time its own length was pushed under the skin. The threads cannot be seen though they lie near the surface. They are acting as a substitute for carrying fluids to the normal channels.
