Business Efficiency

Under today's new conditions, those having business interests require a broad grasp of both industrial and financial affairs — need foresight and quick adaptation.

Business, extending beyond smooth-worn channels, calls for careful guidance, and with his own best knowledge the business man may well combine that of the banker.

Our officers welcome consultation.

NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE WORLD OF SPORTS

BIG LEAGUE SWAP SEASON WAS VERY PRODUCTIVE

By H. C. HAMILTON

(United Press Staff Correspondent.) NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Never in the history of baseball have trades and sales of ball players whizzed and sipped around hotel corridors as they have in the present winter.

No less than six deals of outstanding importance have been consummated, any one of which in days gone by, would have furnished food for a full stove league season's discussion.

None of the sales stands out, however, as does the first of the big transactions, the one which placed Grover Cleveland Alexander in a Cub uniform and filled William F. Baker's pockets with cash. The fact that Bill Killifer also went to Chicago in the same transaction makes it all the bigger, for Killifer is acknowledged one of the game's greatest windpaddlers.

Since the astounding announcement of this exchange of players and cash was made, the Athletics disposed of Wally Schang, Amos Strunk and Joe Bush to the Red Sox, the Browns sold outfielder Bert Shotton and Shortstop John Lavan to the Senators, the Phillies traded Outfielder Dode Paskert to the Cubs for Cy Williams, the Braves traded Lefty Tyler to the Cubs for Larry Doyle and Art Wilson, and the Giants traded Charley Herzog to the Braves for Doyle and Jess Barnes.

There is nothing startling in the last of the deals. Some of them canners, 3.00-5.50; bulls, 4.50-7.00; calves, 7.00-10.25; stockers and feeders, 6.00-8.50.

The hog market has been steady, with normal activity. General quality of offerings in this department has been considerably under standard and hog buyers are like cattle buyers, shorthanded on top quality stuff. The heavy hog is by considerable odds the favorite on today's market, as has been the case for some time past. Quotations in this department are as follows: Prime light, 15.45-15.60; prime heavy, 15.50-15.65; pigs, 13.50-14.50; hogs, 15.50.

No offerings have come forward in the sheep market really to test the situation, but a few valley lambs not "finished" changed hands at 14c. The following prices prevail in this department: Western lambs, 14.50-15.00; valley lambs, 14.00-14.25; yearlings, 12.50-13.00; wethers, 12.00-12.50; ewes, 9.50-11.00.

Basket Ball Game.

HOOD RIVER, Ore., Jan. 18.—The boys' and girls' basketball team of The Dalles high school will meet the local high's quintets here this evening in the first games of the local season. Rivalry between the two schools is strong and a hot pair of games is expected.

The Herzog-Doyle-Barnes deal is almost a laugh for everybody but George Stallings. Stallings got all the best of this deal, even though he picked up a ball player who is in his declining days. The Braves needed a player of Herzog's temperament and ability to make an infield. Stallings got him. What McGraw wanted with Doyle is hard to guess but it is easy to see that he can use Barnes.

PORTLAND LIVESTOCK MARKET

PORTLAND, Jan. 17.—General market conditions at the Portland Union Stock Yards show a very bright front to the shipper this week. The volume of business transacted in the yards today has been comparatively small for a Thursday's market and that especially in the cattle department, but the lack of volume is very largely counterbalanced by intensity of interest and readiness of transaction. Everything that has shown up in the lots for the day has changed hands readily at the top end of the quotations in all classes of cattle. The bull market shows an advance of 25 cents and all classes of medium stuff look like a general upheaval, going at a 25 to 50c premium. Fifty cars of offerings would have changed hands today without affecting prices. Every buyer in the lots has gone away shorthanded. The top end of the following quotations represent the bulk of today's sales: Medium to choice steers, 10.00-10.75; food to medium steers, 8.75-10.00; choice cows and heifers, 7.25-8.00; common to good cows and heifers, 6.00-7.25;
