The last meeting of the Neighborhood Club was held on January 8. Annual society day was observed and many guests were in attendance. A delightful musical program was rendered and included the following numbers:

Piano Duets—
 (a) Italy (Moskowski)
 (b) Elfin March (Mendelssohn)
 Mrs. G. S. Birnie and Mrs. R. J. Green

Vocal Solo—
 Joy of the Morning (Harriet Ware)
 Mrs. T. J. Scroggin

Piano Solo—
 (a) Wedding Day (Grieg)
 (b) Oriental Dance (Harriet Cady)
 Miss Hilda Anthony

Vocal Solo—
 (a) A Spirit Flower (Campbell-Tipton)
 (b) Roses After Rain (Lehmann)
 Mrs. A. L. Richardson

On Tuesday, January 22, Bible day will be observed at the regular meeting. The program follows: "Why Every Person Should Be a Student of the Bible," Mrs. J. D. Smith.

"Art As Influenced by the Bible," Mrs. William Miller.

Piano Solo—"Confidence," from "Songs Without Words," by Mendelssohn, Mrs. Harry Zurbriek.

week to spend several months with relatives. Guests for five tables were asked, the high score being made by Mrs. Norman Fries. Those present were Mrs. Carl Evans, Mrs. Rhea Lupper, Mrs. H. E. Dixon, Mrs. George Vehrs, Mrs. Hal Bohnenkamp, Mrs. R. J. Green, Mrs. Norman Fries, Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp, Mrs. Walter Reuter, Mrs. Elmer Stoddard, Mrs. Lynn Bohnenkamp, Mrs. Earl Stoddard, Mrs. E. D. Sellers, Mrs. Wm. Talbot, Mrs. R. L. Murphy, Mrs. Roscoe Neal, Mrs. Lester Murphy, Mrs. Chas. Blinger, Miss Irene Murphy, Miss Elsie Oelkers, and Miss Etta Foley.

The farewell complimentary party complimentary to Miss Ellen Grady and Miss Ethel Gulling who are soon to go with Base Hospital No. 46, is progressing in La Grande's usual enthusiasm. Mrs. E. Polack, chairman of the entertainment committee, has appointed the following committees on arrangement: Miss Irene Murphy, Mrs. Herman Siegrist, Mrs. Harvey Bay, Mrs. Lloyd Scriber, Mrs. James Snodgrass. This committee coupled with the popularity of the young ladies who have offered their services to their country assures the biggest function of the season. La Grande is loyal to her boys. La Grande will be loyal to her daughters.

The Honor Guard Girls have been working for some time on an entertainment to be given for Armenian relief and Miss Williamson, who has the affair in charge, reports that the production will be ready to stage on Wednesday night, January 29. This entertainment consists of two one-act plays and three shorter stunts and promises to furnish an evening brimful of fun and amusement. One of the plays, "A Laundry Queen," will be played by a cast of high school students, Honor Guard Girls, assisted by Admar Phyle. This is an amusing, wistful little comedy in which Maude Adams starred at one time. The other play is a farcical sketch featuring a very young bride, her chum and two comedy characters an Irish cook and a German maid. The "Soused Orchestra," which made the hit of the evening at the Y. M. C. A. Halloween party, has consented to play again; Leona Newlin will give one of her popular acoustic dances; and there will be a side-splitting stunt, the exact nature of which is being kept secret but which is guaranteed to make you hold your sides. It is rumored that this stunt will contain some local hits and other surprises.

In the midst of a great lot of things beneficial one coming event stands out with particular prominence and that is the exhibition of fancy dancing to be given in connection with the Red Cross benefit dance at Zuber hall Monday evening, Miss Daphne Sommers, aged nine, and a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Sommers of Portland, will be the performing star of the evening. On many occasions she has danced in the Hotel at Portland and is in constant demand by private individuals to exhibit her wonderful charm and gifts. Mrs. T. J. Scroggin, who was instrumental in bringing Miss Sommers out for this occasion, will be the hostess of the little dancing wonder while Miss Daphne is in town. The dance will be a jitney affair except that a small admission will be charged for spectators.

Mrs. H. A. Zurbriek was hostess to a very pleasant party on Friday afternoon for the benefit of the Red Cross. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Carl Evans, of Burlington, Vermont, who arrived here last

Mrs. Lloyd Scriber entertained the Thursday night club on Thursday evening at her home, 404 Main Ave. The evening was spent doing Red Cross work. Light refreshments were served.

Number two was awarded the annual cake donated to the Red Cross by Mrs. A. J. Van Valkenburg, bringing $5 for the Red Cross. Mrs. Chase Bohnenkamp carried home the prize.

Mrs. F. E. Little returned to her home in Summerville after spending several days here at the home of Mrs. Ida Moats.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Charbonneau leave for Portland tonight where they will visit with Mr. Charbonneau's grandmother.

Mrs. Hattie Ferguson left last night for Seattle where she will make her future home on account of her daughter, Lucile's, health.

The ladies of the La Grande Red Cross chapter are sending their usual nine boxes to Seattle today.

Mrs. E. B. Shirley of Imbler returned home after visiting here with her sister, Mrs. W. A. Gorman.

Mrs. H. A. Watson left this morning for Imbler where she will spend the week-end with her mother, Mrs. O. C. Coble.

The Red Cross Christmas seal sale which closed yesterday under the auspices of the Neighborhood club was a huge success. $183.50 was

Corn Bread

CORN BREAD
 (One square pan 16x22 inches.)
 1 qt. milk
 4 oz. butter
 10 oz. light syrup or honey
 3 eggs
 1 pinch salt
 2 lbs. cornmeal
 1 lb. rye flour
 2 oz. baking powder

The butter and the syrup to be thoroughly mixed, then add the eggs and gradually pour in the milk then add the rye flour mixed with the cornmeal and baking powder. To be baked in a hot oven.

CORN FACTS.
 Why is it that corn is not shipped to the allies? The answer is given by the United States Food Administration in these facts:
 Corn meal cannot be shipped because it would spoil in transit.
 As to the whole grain, the people on the other side have no mills in which to grind it.
 Cornbread cannot be baked successfully in bakeries, in which European people depend almost exclusively for their bread. Cornbread does not keep well.

Catarrh of Stomach Did Not Know It Nearly Starved

Mrs. Selena Towner, Athens, Ohio, writes: "I cannot find words to express my thanks for your kind advice. I never once thought I had catarrh of the stomach. I commenced taking Peruna, as you directed. My stomach continued to hurt me for about two weeks after I began the medicine, and then it stopped. I now have a good appetite, while before I was nearly starved."

Those who object to liquid medicines can procure Peruna Tablets.

NEGLIGENCE FOR THE SPRING TROUSSEAU

Chester Koyle and Miss Eva French were united in matrimony by Rev. H. L. Ford at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. French, 908 C avenue at 8 p. m., Wednesday evening. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Mary Koyle and is an employe of the O-W shops, the bride being the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. French and one of the most popular members of the younger set. The wedding party was a large one, there being between forty and fifty guests present. The rooms were handsomely decorated with ferns and red carnations. An elaborate wedding supper was served after the ceremony, forty-four guests sitting down at the supper. Among those present were the bride's parents and two brothers, Tom and Alva Crowley, and Mrs. French, mother of the bridegroom. The happy couple will leave for their future home in Portland tonight.

Here is a rose pink garment to delight the heart of any bride. The foundation is a simple slip of flesh colored satin, and the loose oversmock is of chiffon of the same shade. There are two adorable shirred pouch pockets, a large square collar, and fat silk buttons of large size afford the only ornamentation. This is an extremely common sense negligee for there is no delicate lace to tear, no fluttering ribbons to soil quickly, and the rich materials lend themselves well to cleaning.

Mrs. J. A. McKenzie returned to her home at Imbler after spending several days here visiting friends.

Mrs. Geo. Stringham left for Union where she will spend the week-end visiting with friends.

Mrs. C. H. Baker and daughter, Marie, of Enterprise are visiting Mrs. C. E. Short.

Mrs. J. Veach returned to Imbler after visiting here for a week with friends.

La Grande Girls Win.
 The basket ball game between the La Grande high school girls and the Wallowa high school girls was 26 to 10, in favor of La Grande. The girls played a fast and interesting game. The La Grande line-up was as follows: Forward, Jeanette Stoddard and Martha Schofield; center, Ruth Courtney; guards, Thelma Costello and Gertrude Courtney; stars, Ardis Palmer and Helen Ormley. Ardis Palmer played center in the last quarter.

FOUR CLUBS AFTER WESTERN AMATEUR GOLF TOURNAMENT
 CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The Western Golf association was expected today to re-elect practically all of its old officers, as an endorsement of its partial severance of disreputable relations with the United States Golf association. The points over which the two organizations disagree are still in evidence, because there were no national open championships last year, and the nominating committee was of the opinion that the old officers were better fitted to pilot the association than new ones would be under the circumstances.

The ticket to be voted on today includes:
 President—Charles F. Thompson, Flossmoor, Chicago.
 Vice-president—Charles W. Gorman, Blue Hills, Kansas City.
 Secretary—Charles W. Smalley, Olympia Fields, Chicago.
 Treasurer—Guy F. Greer, Milwaukee.
 Directors—H. F. Smith, Golf and Country, Nashville, Tenn.; Arthur B. Caldwell, Country, Detroit; S. P. Jernahn, Inverness, Toledo; S. C. Strickland, Westmoreland, Chicago; J. H. Barnard, Glen View, Chicago.
 Trustin B. Boyd of St. Louis, vice-president, declined re-nomination and Gorman was named in his place. Gorman was a director, and Barnard was named to fill that vacancy. These were the only changes.

Four clubs have applied for the western amateur championship tournament. They are the Blue Hills Country club of Kansas City, Country Club of Detroit, Inverness club of Toledo, and Town and Country club of St. Paul. So far, no application has been made for the western championship tournament.

SONGS OF THE SAMMIES
 WITH THE AMERICAN EXPEDITIONARY ARMY, FRANCE, Dec. 15 (By Mail).—Down in Company Street they're betting three-to-one that the sergeant never reached the German lines alive.

The sergeant was hiding after that trench raid when the Boche dropped into our trenches for some fighting. When the shooting lifted the sergeant was the first one bounding up stairs from the dugout—the lieutenant had remained at the mouth of the stairs all the time.

It was very dark. The Sammies could see figures rushing toward them.

"Don't shoot, I'm an American," said one young soldier, thinking the strangers were French soldiers from an adjacent sector.

"You're just the birds we're out to kill," said a Boche in English, and he shot the American dead.

The Sammies didn't like trench fighting. As many as could make it leaped onto the parapet where they could use their rifles at close-range on the enemy. It was a mix-up; the Germans knew their plan and knew where not to shoot because their own men were there.

When it was over the sergeant was missing.

"I bet three dollars to one today that the Sergeant fought out in No-Man's Land till they had to kill him," said one of his boys today. "That may just loved a fight. They'll never put him in a prison camp."
