NEWS AND GOSSIP OF THE WORLD OF SPORTS

TED THYE AND PAUL KINNEY WRESTLE DRAW

ENTERPRISE, Jan. 27.—(Special.)—The wrestling match here last night between Ted Thye of Spokane and Paul Kinney, of Enterprise, resulted in a draw. The men put up an hour of splendid wrestling but were so nearly matched that neither one could secure a fall. There was not a very good crowd to see the match but the fans who were present were very enthusiastic and well pleased. There will probably be a return finish match under the auspices of the Moose lodge here next month.

N. Y. BELIEVES DECISION FIGHTS WILL AD SPORT

By H. C. HAMPTON (United Press Staff Correspondent.) NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—New York state still yearns for a law that will legalize boxing and really make it a decent sport. Some law that will give the sport a standing in the largest community in the country is being eagerly sought.

Assemblyman Marty McCue, a former squared circle inhabitant, is one of the strongest of supporters for a bill and he has framed another for presentation to the legislature. Back in the days of the Frawley law when some of the greatest fights in the history of the game were pulled off under the ten-round no-decision farce law that had been spread on the books, there was too much chance for petty graft. There also was too much chance for stalling boxers to make life unpleasant for the suffering public. The law died a natural death. Any new bill that passes and is expected to have a life of more than just a few short months must combine other features. And that is the goal for which legislators are striving.

Whether or not the new law will have a decision feature can't be predicted. It hasn't that embodied in it as it now stands, but there are certain members of the New York state legislature who believe allowing decisions would make the game cleaner and insure a departure from the old complaining days. It used to be that a champion

LA GRANDE HIGH SCHOOL BOYS ARE IN WALLA WALLA

The La Grande high school basketball team is scheduled to play a game with the Walla Walla high school today at Walla Walla. They are to play Pendleton high school tomorrow in Pendleton. The list of games played since they left here are as follows:

Franklin High, 11, La Grande 23, on January 22.
Corvallis High, 21; La Grande 25, January 23 at Corvallis.
O. A. C. Freshmen, 42; La Grande, 20; January 26 at Corvallis.
U. of O. Freshmen, 45; La Grande, 21; Thursday, January 24, at Eugene.

The Eugene high school elimed the basketball championship of the Willamette Valley until Corvallis high school won from them, then the La Grande high school won from Corvallis. Now the title is unsettled until more games are played in Portland among the high schools there. If the La Grande team wins from Pendleton it will put us in line for the State championship.

The boys are expected home Wednesday. could sign for a no decision bout, condition himself for a long period of footwork and then bend his efforts in the ring solely toward saving himself from punishment. So long as a decision could not be rendered against him it was certain he could not lose his title, even though clearly defeated. Freddie Welsh was out-pointed in New York rings time after time, but it did him no harm, so far as his championship standing was concerned.

Strayed.

PORTLAND MARKETS

WEEKLY MARKET REVIEW

PORTLAND, Jan. 26.—The strength which has been accumulating during the week in all departments of the market at the Portland Union Stock Yards is such that it shows practically all sales at the top end of the quotations, and a strong upward trend. It seems impossible that buyers will be able to top the upward tendency until the winter feed lots shall have been emptied. The demands have increased from day to day but the supply is insufficient to meet the demand. The cow market has shown another advance of 50 cents, extending up to a 9.00 top, with steers going at former quotations, and an 11.00 top. Quotations in this department are as follows: Med. to choice steers, 10.35-11.00; good to medium steers, 9.35-10.35; common to good steers, 7.75-9.25; choice cows and heifers, 7.75-9.00; common to good cows and heifers, 6.50-7.75; canners, 3.00-6.00; bulls, 5.00-7.50; calves, 7.50-11.00; stockers and feeders, 6.00-9.00.

Hogs are active at steady prices, and the demand in this department is just about balanced by the supply. All indications point toward a strong market in the hog department as well as in all others, for the coming week. The following quotations are current in the hog market: Prime light, 15.75-16.00; prime heavy, 15.75-16.10; pigs, 13.75-14.50; bulk, 16.00.

The sheep market continues to gather strength, the market having a very active tone in the face of heavy shipments for the latter part of the week. Lambs went at 15.50, wethers at 14.50-14.50; and ewen at 11.00. Conditions at this writing show an extremely healthful outlook for the Portland market and ought to bring heavy shipments in all departments of the market. Conditions in the sheep market show the following prevalent prices: Western lambs, 15.00-15.50; Valley lambs, 14.50-15.00; yearlings, 13.00-13.50; wethers, 12.50-13.00; ewes, 10.00-11.00.

DIDN'T KNOW WHERE BUT WASN'T AFRAID

The destroyer Jacob Jones had been sunk by a German U-boat. Those of her crew who had survived were swimming about. Among them was Lieut. Commander Worth Bagley, last to leave the vessel. A seaman, battling with the waves, recognized his commander. He spat out a mouthful of salt water and grinned impudently. "Say Cap," he yelled "where do we go from here!"
